MEMO: Coronavirus (COVID-19)

To: Public

From: Director, Rosemary Winters

Date: March 23, 2020

The current situation with the coronavirus (COVID-19) is being closely monitored to determine necessary safety precautions. The Library serves as a community gathering place for all ages, and it is our top priority to put the health and well-being of our patrons and staff first.

The Library will be closed until further notice. At this time, all programs scheduled for April will be cancelled.

The Library Budget Hearing scheduled for March 25 at 6:00pm and the Budget Vote scheduled for April 7 from 2:00-8:00pm will be postponed. More information will be sent out upon rescheduling.

Please continue to take this opportunity to utilize our vast online resources available through our Library website <https://cutchoguelibrary.org/>:

- E-Books & E-Audiobooks: Overdrive & Libby
- Video Streaming: Kanopy
- E-Magazines: Flipster
- & general online resources (Newspapers, Language Learning, etc.)

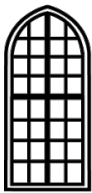

Keep an eye out for upcoming Virtual Programming which will be posted to the Library Facebook!

If you have items that are due, you will not accrue late fees. No late fees will be accrued on materials that are due during this period.

Please refer to the Centers for Disease Control and World Health Organization guidelines and refrain from visiting the library if you are sick.

Please be assured the Library is committed to doing its part to safeguard our community. The public will continue to be informed through the Library website, Facebook and email blasts.

Contact us for any questions or assistance during this time by emailing: askus@cnsfl.org OR use our NEW virtual chat assistance on our website: <https://cutchoguelibrary.org/>. This will be active during normal operational hours and is easy to use. Please reach out to us!
