

Homebound Services Information

In an effort to serve patrons unable to travel to the Library, the Cutchogue New Suffolk Free Library, upon request, will make arrangements to deliver materials to a patron's home. This service is available to patrons of all ages.

- Interested patrons must:
 - have a Cutchogue New Suffolk Free Library card in good standing
 - complete the following Homebound Services Application and return it to the Library.
- Upon receipt of the completed application, the patron will be contacted by a librarian for further details.
- Materials will be sent to the patron via the US Postal Service.
- Materials are sent to the patron and are to be returned to the Library in a canvas mailing envelope requiring no postage.
