Dedication

Mr. Frennd & Mr. Buckner

When talking about the educators of the Class of 2003, two special teachers come to mind. Both have taught us the necessity of the subjects they teach, while entertaining us with their personalities, good looks, and their aspects on the world. Their nonchalant smiles and their kickback attitudes gave us a glimpse on how we would love them forever.

Entering 9th grade, we were privileged to christen one of them as he began his career at Mattituck High School. Between giving us tips on snowboarding, arguing which movie certain quotes came from, maintaining a love-hate relationship with our class, and of course his knowledge of Earth Science, he made our first year of high school more than what we would have expected. He gave us a look at an X-treme lifestyle and to have fun in whatever you do. We all admired that we had a teacher that was close to us, and on our level as students...and "dude, that was sweet."

The other would have to have a standing ovation while entering his classroom. As students, we were forced to learn the aspects of the ancient civilizations while hearing about his experiences when walking the border of Australia. You could notice him from a mile away, back when he had more hair than his two daughters and his wife put together, either driving his VW van, or riding his bike to school. His class times were always enjoyable and never ordinary.

It is the honor of the Class of 2003 to dedicate our yearbook, "Life Between Summers," to two men who have changed our way of looking at life; to have more fun, and to add excitement to everything we take on, whether it is a 'round-the-world trip or just a 5 foot swell. It is you, Señor and Gary B, who made our class what it is today.

Thank you Eric Frennd and Gary Buckner.

Due to production problems the photo of Ms. Timpone was not included in the staff pages. Our apologies to Ms. Timpone, Special Education assistant.

RETIREMENTS

Enjoy your retirement!

Mr. Chisty can always make a bad day good with one little sentence. He never fails to give advice when needed or to simply listen. He will be greatly missed and we wish him the best!

The guidance office will certainly miss the two long time secretaries who have brought many smile and laughs to all. Enjoy your retirement Mrs. Lademann and Mrs. Milazzo!

CLASS OF 2003

A CLASS

LIKE NONE OTHER

To the Class of 2003:

Thirteen years ago we stood waiting anxiously for the first day of school at the bus stops. Little did we know we would be one of the greatest classes to ever graduate from Mattituck High School. We walked into kindergarten a bit scared and happy just to finally go to school. While some of us saw the faces of our classmates for the first time.

The early years were left with memories of naptime and snack time, playing in the sand, and the slides on the playground looking so big. Those years moved on where snack and nap didn't come, and we were very disappointed (and we still are). Stepping up to elementary school varied from the infamous crayfish, D.A.R.E and alligator claps to our ninja turtle T-shirts...Field trips to museums and field days were the highlights of our school time. The years before Jr. High were filled with more and more thrills of becoming a teenager. Between the one hit wonder of Hanson and the rise of Tomagotchi's we were almost set for never being a kid again; yet now being seniors, we all see that kid again that we once wanted to get rid of.

With a mix of being thrilled and scared at the same time, we entered Junior High with our huge book bags and the obsession of Spice Girls and Titanic. 7th grade was the year of the Constitution, Poetry Books, and our daily dose of classroom teachings by Bill Nye the Science Guy. Frost Valley pulled us together as a class in many unforgettable ways.

8th Grade came with the feeling of being somewhat upper-classmen. We knew we weren't the lowest on the totem pole, but low enough not to be in high school. We went to the Junior High dances and the Snowball with less intimidation due to our superior roll. Our trip to Washington D.C. resulted in lessons not only of our great nation, but also lessons on how live together as one. We watched Chris Hudson touch the ceiling and get thrown out of the mint – but it's ok, he's our Valedictorian.

With us being freshmen, we christened our class at homecoming and proved that we were the class to never fail at anything. Starting the winning streak of Peter Pan and seeing Dan in tights while spray-painting "Freshman" with a skull and cross bones on the sidewalk in the front of the school were the Kodak moments. We entered high school with harder classes and times such as Dirt Science and the recess kids calling Pat 'Fat Frankenstein' while Gary B's global class had us not talking to our best friends due to the rules of the karma and social classes. Swing was in and the school's semi-formal, Dancin' in the Streets, was our prom.

Sophomore year we woke up to the beloved Special K (found right underneath the Cheerios), and hearing "You can't handle it Schwedge!" The classes grew harder with our lockers filled with more and more books yet Seed's was still full of bottles. The fumes of spray paint again left with another victory at homecoming with our float "Candyland" – not to mention we still couldn't spell our class name right. We were still the only class to ever win twice, let alone in a row. And who could forget the class snowball fight over at the old lumberyard.

To us, the name "Juniors" meant 'one more year 'till we're seniors' while we battled our worries of next year and the stress of this year beside us. We 'Rocked On' with another winning float at homecoming with the Flintstones and boy did we think we would win –Thanks to Pat for running around like he did...In the spring, our Junior Prom, Tonight, Tonight, had us dancing the night away with our king and queen of Seed and Dana. Driving around, beach hopping, watching the seniors reenact "Fight Club," and Pizza Hut buffets, we partied into our last high school year.

Nothing could have kicked off our first weekend as being seniors than Silvia's sexy 17th birthday party. Who could forget the 9-person car rides and watching our class be together on that crazy, crazy night. Senior privileges included successfully sitting on the bench without having to get up, and to say the excuse, "We're Seniors!" when asked which class we should be in. College stress came about in the talks with Mr. Lynch and Mrs. Depaulis and some Mr. Christy chats on life in general. Reminders of deadlines and the anxious waits for our last SAT scores kept us procrastinating. We all knew we would make it through somehow, and still have the time of our lives. The seniors were Stayin' Alive this year at homecoming, our 4th and final victory. This year's theme of the 70's defiantly blew the competition away, and they all thought senioritis would kick in. We know we're obsessed. Senior highlights included the West Memphis Three, AP Kindergarten, sandwich in the locker, BQ, 5/8's, the swan, and Murph Geography. Now looking at the Junior High students we say, "Man, we were never that little" but quietly remember running past the senior bench, like they do now. We're ending senior year knowing we have to move on soon, and say goodbye to our fellow classmates and our best friends until the last few days in August, when we all get together again and say our final goodbye's for our next step in life – the college years.

In many ways, our class lucked out. We were the last class to Frost Valley; we just barely cleared our driving privileges, and had the class of 2002 to break us in a little. Yet more importantly, we lucked out with our class itself. With the differences from the class clowns to the smarts and the soccer's, each one of us will be remembered as the great and bubbly class of 2003. To us, high school was our life between summers yet the times of our lives that were never to be forgotten. Wishing you all the happiness, for the best in college and the years beyond, never forget these years and the life they brought to you. So congratulations to the class of 2003! And always remember, keep it fun.

Lots of love and smiles,

Meghan Pillai

"Slow down every-one, you're moving too fast"
-Jack Johnson

Mom and Dad: We've survived the last 7 years! Thanks for "letting me come", taking the bus wasn't so bad after all. I LOVE YOU!
Non, Marf, Dave, Bri: Every move you make leads me, I wouldn't trade you for anything!
Lis, Kait, Nay: LKRR, I love you girls...you're always with me whether in body or spirit! You'll always be my best friends!
Stephen: "All I need is just you", thanks so much for being you; getting me through this year, you're the best man!
Meg: Opposites must attract! You've always been the first to notice, I love you TT!
Class of '02: BC, AI, CL, JD, HS, Small Guys, MR, KH, CA, MS... Miss you! Thanks for all the good times!
Meg/Sar: Lyle Lovett & hot dogs! Hope your futures are as bright as your smiles!
Margot: My up island chick! Thanks for toughing it out with me, lunchtime and all. I've got faith in you, you're going places!
Em (Leigh): I love you mini-me! Good luck, use your head and you'll do more than fine
Lucian: You're always on my mind and in my heart, every step of the way...My angel!

Lesia Baker

Melissa: You were the sister God never gave me. I am so happy my mom made me go down the block and introduce myself! Nine years have passed and we're still laughing. So many memories I could write a book. I just wanted to say thank you for having a part in who I am today and I Love You! One more year to go, stay strong and Good Luck! Lesia: So many ups and downs, but now we are stronger than ever! You are the one I can go to and say the stupidest thing and you will understand where I am coming from. The memories that we have made I will hold with me forever...I Love You!

Heather: If I need to smile you are the one I come to. Our classic last days of school, driving around in the Explorer, our long talks, nights out, and sleepovers. I will always remember what we have and never take that for granted. Thank you for making my high school experience exciting and fun! I'll be waiting for my Giants tickets when you are working @ ESPN! I Love You Heath Dana: We are very different but at the same time alike. You have helped me with so many hard times in my Senior year, and you made them all better. Thank you for accepting the person that I really am and still being my friend! Good Luck... Love ya Lauren: I don't know how I would have done everything to become a nurse without you there to help me through it. You always let me vent and you would understand cause you were and are going through the same things. Thank You for everything! I Love You See ya around the hospital... James: You will always be my first true love...no matter what happens that will always be a fact of my life. You have made me grow and change in so many ways and I Love You for that. Thank You for loving the real me! Mom and Dad: Thank you for everything. I am what I am because of you!

"Stormy" - always a pleasure, YA JERK!

Alexis Zoder

What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult to each other?

George Eliot (Mary Ann Evans)

Thanks mom and dad for your encouragement over the years. Good Luck Ashley and Deidre. I love you two and have fun but don't get into too much trouble. Also remember sisters always stick together.

Thanks Mrs. Foster for all you have done for me.

Chris - we have had a lot of great memories over the past 2 years - The Grinch, Dune Rd. - Westhampton Beach. Let's always keep in touch. I love you and the best of all wishes for the future.

To the class of 2003 - may you all find happiness and success.

Hey Seniors!

SEPTEMBER 11th

Some say that it is ironic how an event like 9-11 can make separate individuals come together as a single strength. Our school, as well as our community, however, did not need an event such as this to get us to work as one. For the September 11 memorial, Mattituck students planted daffodils outside of our school. Each spring as the daffodils bloom, it will remind us of the strength and persistence of our nation.

WE WILL NEVER FORGET

(right and below) Seniors Sarah, Kyle and Science teacher, Mr. DeCaro, are showing their true colors along with our nation's pride on 9-11.

Melissa, Marcy, and Sarah lookin' good in red!

The red, white, and blue on Tuffy, Gary, and Ms. Krupski represents the patriotism of the entire school community.

SPIRIT DAY

Spirit Day is a great opportunity to show your true colors. Students came to school decked out in blue and gold. Torie Cande, Rachel Wells, Marissa Viola, Erica Fedison, Jamie MacDonald, and Liz DeReeder were named the most spirited students in the school. Congratulations to all!!

PEEP RALLY

HOMECOMING

2002

The homecoming parade kept the spirit going with the theme of "Decades" in the float contest. The Freshmen roared into the Twenties, while the Sophomores sang with the Sixties, and the Juniors rocked n' rolled in the Fifties. The seniors stayed alive in the disco decade...the Seventies. The soccer games were victorious and were a high point of a successful season. Congratulations to all teams for staying strong and moving on!

UNDEFEATED!!

The fall of 1999 began with the ninth graders entering the homecoming parade for the first time. "Tinkerbell" and "Peter Pan" led the "Lost Children" who refused to grow up to their first homecoming float win. No one knew what to expect from this class but we knew that they were special. In tenth grade, this class of winners played "Candy Land" down Love Lane. The boundless energy of this group of students brought them through the "Peppermint Forest" to their second victory. Off to Bedrock and the class of 2003 was in their junior year. Wilma, Barney, Betty, and Dino led "The Flintstones" in their third parade but Fred (Pat Whelan) showed his style as he yelled "YABBA DABBA DOO" down Love Lane. This endless energy and dedication of the class brought them to an unprecedented third win. Moving on to the fall of 2002, the underclassmen were hoping that senioritis had set in and maybe, just maybe, another class could grab first place. However, "Kiss", "The Village People", "Richard Nixon", "Sonny & Cher", "Elvis", "Muhammad Ali", and countless others pulled together to remain undefeated for the fourth year. Congratulations and Good Luck to the class of 2003!!

CLASS OF 2008

What a new world it is! The class of 2008 moved from being the big kids in Cutchogue East to being the little ones at Mattituck. It wasn't long before this class made themselves comfortable and began their journey. Good Luck to the members of the class of 2007!

CLASS OF 2007

Two years of junior high school and this class has made its mark on our school. An unlimited supply of energy and creativity distinguishes this class from the rest. Success is yours as you begin your adventures in high school.

CLASS OF 2006

The first year of high school presents many new challenges. The class of 2006 began their high school career with their usual vitality. We expect greatness from this colorful class.

CLASS OF 2005

Halfway through high school and this class is still amazing everyone they come across. This class is the definition of confidence.

Love, Mom

Since the day you were both born you have filled our life with love and joy. First you were "The Babies", then "The Girls" and forever "The Twins." But you are both so much more....

You have grown into such beautiful and bright young women. Individuals, thriving with passion, compassion, humor, and style. You both have made us extremely proud. Enjoy all that life has to offer.

As you travel on your separate journies carry along a little of each other. Celebrate your special bond.

The Love of Family is our priceless gift. So wherever life leads you, always remember you can count on our Love and Support.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Michael

Immeasurably.
Unconditionally.
Always.
We Love You.

Dear Sara,

Your charisma leaves a "wake" wherever you go... Your bubbly personality and recognizable "voice" will lead you to a successful future.

We are all (your entire family) so very proud of the vocation you have chosen and prouder still of how you are pursuing it with determination and dedication.

You are a very unique person. Your personal values, beliefs, and integrity will pave the way to a happy and healthy life.

We love you, Mom and Dad.

P.S. Always know, we are just a phone call away

Dear Jaz,

Throughout the past 17 wonderful and sometimes challenging years, we have seen the Lord do amazing things in your life! You have been a precious gift. We are so proud of you.

Congratulations and all our love, forever & always no matter what!

Dear Aaron,

Congratulations on achieving your High School Graduation. This is where the proverbial "Rubber meets the Road." We have afforded you exposure to many life styles, Religions and numerous Education Opportunities. What you do with it now, is entirely up to you...We love you, pray for you and support your decisions. Now you have to decide what in life is worth Working Very Hard for. May God bless you in your Future Endeavors and always Trust in the Lord for guidance.

Love always,

Mom, Dad, Abaigeal, and Nana

Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the needy.
Proverbs 31:9

Dear Jarret,

I write this letter with tears in my eyes and a smile on my face as I think about the first 18 years of your life. It went so fast. I miss the little boy you once were, but I'm so proud of the young man you have become. Your remarkable sense of humor and good friends have filled our home with laughter and happiness which allowed our family to thoroughly enjoy these passing school years. Thank you.

Nanny and Poppy used to say, "...someday you will have children of your own and then you will understand." I always thought that was warning, never imagining that I would be so blessed to have a son like you. I'm not ready to let you go, but I know in my heart that you are more than prepared to begin this new journey in your life. You recently said to me, "Mom life is good!" and how right you are.

Always remember the importance of the quality of relationships and the fragility of life. Don't be afraid of change, embrace it, because you are strongest when challenged. Be true to yourself and follow your heart. I am confident success will be yours. You have made a difference here at Mattituck, now it's time to go make your mark on the world. Remember, I am always here for you. I love you Tin Man.

Mom

Dear Jarret,

What can a father say about a son who has matured and turned out like he has? Well...impressed, proud and confident that you will succeed in whatever road you choose.

Love,
Dad

Dear Jarret,

It has been with great joy that I have been able to watch you grow from a young kid to a responsible adult. There are many decisions ahead for you as well as many challenges. I am confident that you will make us proud. Always remember that I will be available to provide you with unsolicited advice, and questionable humor. Love Two

Christian,

The quote "Everyone has 15 minutes in the sun" has been granted to your parents 5 times, with the birth of you and your siblings. It feels as if seventeen years has been fifteen minutes.

You have always followed that internal voice that got you through the ups & downs. We could "debate" what that voice is but "let's not."

God has given us a very special gift in you. Always remember He will carry you when you are tired and smile when you shine in the sun.

We want the "Lincoln Bedroom"

Love you always,

Mom, Dad, Danielle,

Gillian, Shannon & Kevin

Dear Alexis,

It seems that yesterday you were starting nursery school wearing pretty little dresses with ribbons and bows in your hair. You have now become this beautiful young woman graduating high school, beginning a new phase in your life. We are so proud of your success, dedication and ability to stay focused. We know the future holds many wonderful experiences and accomplishments for you. You are every parent's dream. Thank you for all the beautiful memories.

Love,

Mom & Dad

Ashley & Deidre

Dear Sugs,

You are our special blessing. You bring laughter and much joy to our lives and so much love to our hearts! We're so proud of ALL your accomplishments. Please remember we love you and will always be here for you.
Keep hitting them straight!
Love you lots,
Mom and Dad

Dear Lesa

(Lee Bee) Boo

Where have all the years gone to? The last we looked you just turned two. Puzzles, blocks and pigtailed IN. Toddler parties and everything nice. Now you're off to college life.

We have been blessed through the years with your love, zest for life and unique laughter that brings joy to everyone. You are a precious gift.

Follow your dreams to new heights of beauty, wonder and inspiration - for dreams color your soul with rainbows of hope for tomorrow.

As you embrace each new day, strive to do your best and God will do the rest. May the Lord guide your steps and bring you peace. We wish you sunshine, patience, happiness but most of all "LOVE."

Love & Blessings

Mom & Dad

My Little Dill Weed You're all grown-up
You're off to college and I'm all done!

Dreams can become a reality don't ever give up. Study hard and when you think you are done, study some more. You'll learn things you won't need - remember to make everything fun. I'll always be around somewhere if you need me and I'll always love you no matter how often I yell at you. Good Luck
Love Amye.

Dear Jen,

You are our first born and our first child to bring into our lives so much happiness, joy and pride. Now you are to begin your new journey out into the world on your own. We want you to always know that we will always be here for you, no matter what, and our doors will always be open for you. We love you very much and wish you the very best for a bright and successful future.

All Our Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Bruce,

Always determined to succeed and focused on your goals, don't forget to take time to enjoy the journey as you go forward and meet new challenges. Your quiet ways and sense of humor make you very special to all of us. We pray that God will bless and protect you. Always remember we love you.

Love,

Dad, Mom and Annmarie

Forever

"Forever some people come into our lives and quickly go... Some people move our souls to dance, they awaken us to new understanding with a passing whisper of their wisdom, and make the sky more beautiful to gaze upon.
