DEDICATION

The Class of 1975 believes that it is fitting to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Bill Salmon, a person who has been especially friendly and helpful to all of us. Because he first started working at Southold High School in 1971, the same year that we entered the School, we feel a kind of kinship with him. More important, he is always willing to lend a hand and go out of his way to help everyone. It is because of our fondness and admiration for Bill Salmon that we, the Class of 1975, dedicate our Book to Uncle Bill.

I sit beside the fire and think
of all that I have seen,
Of meadow-flowers and butterflies in summers that have been.

For still there are so many things that I have never seen:
In every wood in every spring
there is a different green.

I sit beside the fire and think
of people long ago
And people who will see a world that I shall never know.

If it feels good, do it

JOAN ROGERS

If you look along the horizon, there lies the secret of all dreams.
 The visions that you admire are those to strive to fulfill.
 Whether for the joy of being happy, the rhythm of harming, or the compassion of a loved one.
 Each of which must be gained through your own inspiration.
 There always comes those moments of ecstasy during the life-trials we surpass. Now and in the future goals.
 By sharing your ideas and warmth with another . . .
 Acting as equal structures in society . . .
 Willing to give true love for eternity . . .
 Donate friendship and good times.
 Allow all to join in. Never leave one alone in the fog of insecurity.
 For no man is an island!

The road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

Day is ended, dim my eyes
 But journey long before me lies
 Farewell friends, I hear the call the ship's beside the stony wall
 foam is white and waves are gray,
 Beyond the sunset leads my way
 foam is salt and wind is free,
 I hear the rising of the sea.
 Ship, my ship I seek the west,
 and fields and mountains ever blest,
 Islands lie behind the sun
 that I shall raise ere all is done.

Old friends,
Old friends,
Sat on their park bench
Like bookends.
A newspaper blown through the grass
Falls on the round toes
On the high shoes
Of the old friends.

Can you imagine us years from today,
Sharing a park bench quietly?
How terribly strange
To be seventy.
Old friends,
Memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fear . . .

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

"I don't care how they do it at Soundview!"

"I'm off on a mission, soon as I resupply with referrals."

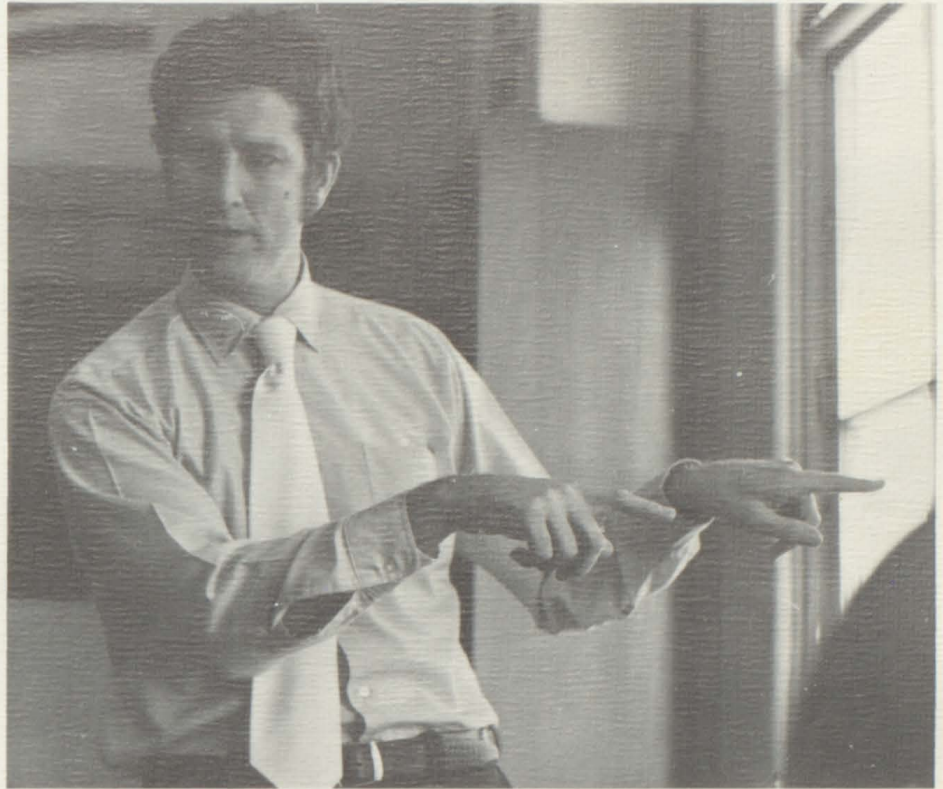

"I'm gathering wild bush cranberries for my grape nuts."

"Only 180 more days to go!"

"I wonder if Rosemary Woods started this way."

"First you put your two knees close up tight, then you sway 'em to the left . . ."

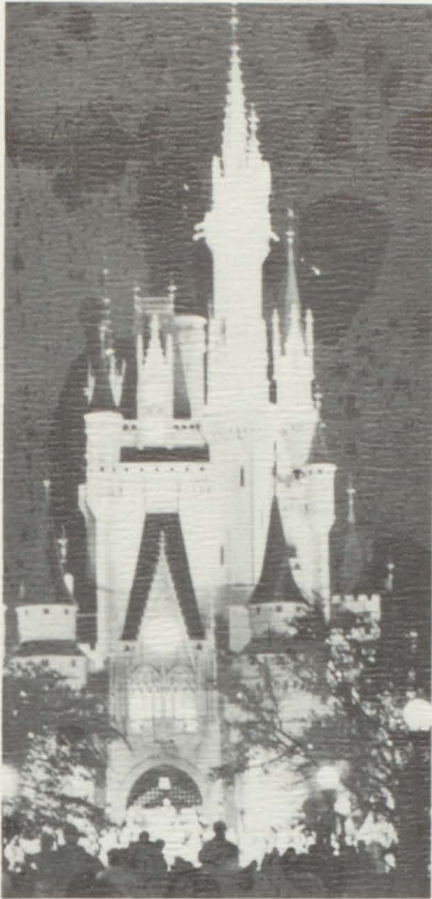

"Mangé Goldberg!"

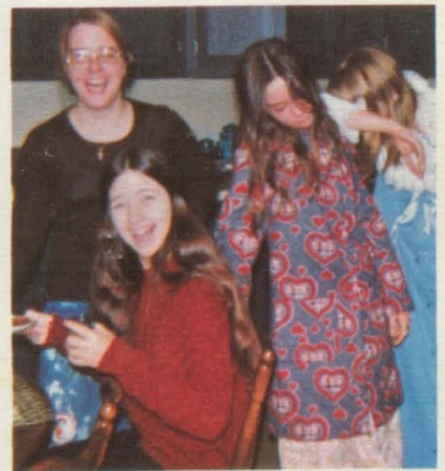

"What do you mean phys ed is against your religion?"

AND WHO COULD EVER FORGET . . .

CLASSROOM BLUES

The trees are swaying slowly
They seem to be saying "come with me"
Why sit in a stuffy classroom
Come out and be free with us.

Free to sway in the wind
Yet not free in a sense
Trees have to stay planted to the ground
I don't, yet I can't move from this seat.
 'Till the bell rings . . .
 then I'm free.

I've sunk low in myself
 Trying to write the turmoil and he writes up the zeros
 because of my neglection
I do my best

I've got to say I'm not in trouble just to survive
 The jungle of people
 The senselessness
All the people physically together but farther apart and more apart than anyplace else thoughts follow thoughts in one direction channelled tight
 The total humiliation of non-personage

REACH-OUT

Reach out across that out-grown wall,
Invisible, restraining.
Step where you have not before,
The time has come to grow.
How many things you have not seen,
Toss away your blinders.
Open up your mind, your heart,
To new exciting worlds.
Find beauty where you thought was none,
Love in unknown hearts.
Disregard past apprehension,
Explore with inner peace.
Accept yourself, discover others,
And everything around you.
Grow and share, see and hear,
Experience it now.
Life is deeper than the sea,
Greater than the skies -
It's yours to grasp, it's yours to hold,
Reach out and you will find it.

LIFE

If I think about it, it makes me wonder
For every good thing must you get bad?
Life we must always ponder
Yet just to live makes me glad.

R. Scotti '75

'75

We came together
Work, play,
Laugh, weep,
Shout, murmur,
Run, leap,
Together.
Time for an end
Together.

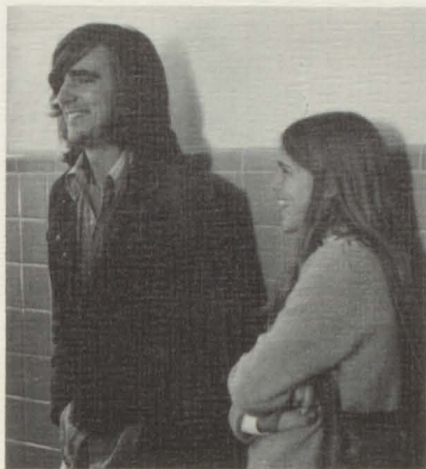

Alice Salter '75

As our times go on
Being together and sharing dreams
Means more and more to me
But it's past all too quickly
And now it's hard to say good-bye
Just as friends . . .

Debbie Sisino '75

I walked and searched alone
 Searched for my soul
 Then you came
 And walked with me
 Now I search alone
 No more
 You help me
 The looking is easier.
 Alice Salter '75

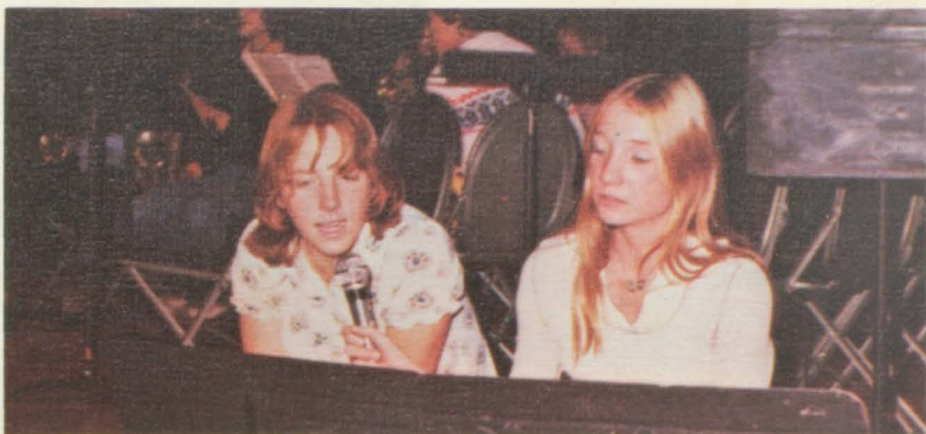

I am happy for having shared
 part of their lives,
 It's also sad for me to see them leave
 For not being able to seek them out,
 To pour out my feelings,
 and listen to theirs,
 But time and distance
 will separate us . . .

Mona McCarthy '76

I'm sitting here looking out of the doors of the school.
 Outside that door lies the brink of things to come.
 My future and past have happened and will happen here.
 My life will run its different courses while standing in this doorway.
 Oh yes, this threshold of things . . .
 my things to come.
