Cheer for Mattituck High School
Our dear Blue and Gold
We'll play the game and win the fame
Our hearts will ever hold
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Cheer for Alma Mater
Defeat will never do
In after days when we're away
We'll dream of you.

Soccer

For the second year in a row, Mattituck High's soccer team came out on top in the East End League. Undeclared in league play, the team lost out by a 1-0 score in the County playoff.

Harold "Hoogie" Haupt was the very capable captain of the squad.

Baseball

This year's baseball team consisted of six players from that of last year's, Harold Haupt, George Lessard, Walter Orlowski, Lawrence DePetris, Captain; Edward Saunders and Alex Zuhoski, besides the newcomers.

Band

The Band this year consisted of 46 members. It was active throughout the Basketball season playing at games and pep meetings. Included were the special exhibitions they performed at the Southold and Sag Harbor games. They also participated in the annual Spring Concert and the Memorial Day Parade.

The officers elected were: President-Sara Bassford, Vice President-Stella Blasko, Secretary-Marilyn Charters, Treasurer-Faye Benjamin.

Carol Bassford was chosen drum majorette and Jean Armbrust, assistant. Sophie Moisa, Elinor Jones, Priscilla Reeve, Gay Hudson, Virginia Coleman, twirlers, also played an important part, adding skill and activity.

Faye Benjamin represented the Band in the New York State Music Association at Huntington.

4 by 10
Club

This organization consists of 40 chosen members. Its President is Edward Saunders, Vice President-Virginia Coleman, Secretary-Sophie Moisa, Treasurer-Elinor Jones.

They participated in the Christmas Carol Sing, rendering Handel's well known "Halleluiah Chorus." They also took part in the spring concert, singing "Aint a That Good News" by Dawson. They concluded the year by singing for the Baccalaureate Service.

Those who attended the New York State Music Association at Huntington were Ann McBride, Shirley Tuthill, Helen Frazee and Gay Hudson.

Orchestra

The Orchestra, a small organization due to the lack of string players, took active part playing at the Christmas Carol sing. It also participated in the spring concert, playing "Young Prince and Princess" from the "Scheherezade Suite" by Rimsky Korsakoff.

The officers were President-Carol Bassford, Vice President-Elinor Jones, Secretary-Rita Danowski, and Treasurer-Stella Blasko.

Carol Bassford and Rita Danowski took part in the New York State Music Association at Huntington.

Boys' Chorus

The M.H.S. Boys' Chorus this year participated in only one show, but an important one. They opened the annual Minstrel Show with the old time favorite, "It's A Great Day".

As a special attraction several boys were chosen to sing solos. Throughout the remainder of the program, they rendered other songs which were enjoyed by all.
