Retirees

Special Educat

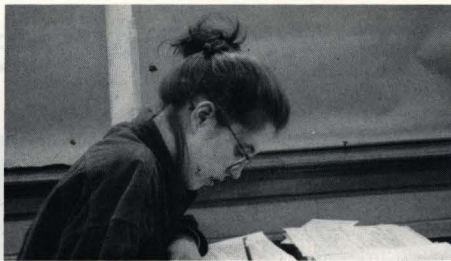

Mr. Lester, Mr. Grabowski, Mrs. McGlynn, Mr. Krudop

Heartfelt thanks go out to George Lester and his twenty years of hard work and dedication at MHS. Mr. Lester has a long list of accomplishments including the past and present stage band and an excellent talent for teaching music. Under Mr. Lester's direction MHS has come to have one of the best bands in Suffolk County. All students who have known him have definitely gained from his musical talents. This teacher truly cares for music and his students, and it shows in everything he does. The student body wishes you a happy retirement.

For thirty two years Mr. Krudop has given all students who passed through his classroom a solid foundation in algebra. Students will never forget "papa parallelogram" or reward for getting a hundred on the Math I Regents. In earlier years he served as the senior class advisor where he ran the very successful magazine campaign, which provided the class with most of its funds. Although your broad and cheerful laughter will be missed, the student body would like to thank and wish you well in your retirement.

Mr. Grabowski or "Grubber" as he's more commonly called by his students came to Mattituck High School from St. Pascals of Queens in 1971. Throughout the twenty-two years he has been here, he has maintained a sense of humor toward the language and topics of choice for boys ages thirteen through eighteen. Besides teaching both elementary and high school classes, Mr. Grabowski has kept himself busy by coaching numerous sports such as baseball, soccer, and basketball. Mr. Grabowski also took the time to teach many nervous students how to drive. And so, for your many contributions throughout the years the student body would like to thank you.

From creating the Sports Award dinner to coaching a plethora of sports Mrs. McGlynn has put much energy and enthusiasm into everything she has done in the twenty-seven years she has taught at MHS. Along with teaching and coaching she has also taken on the position of athletic director, but not matter how busy she is always willing to take time out to guide one of her "chikies". The student body would like to not only wish you all the luck in your retirement but also thank you for your dedication on and off the field.

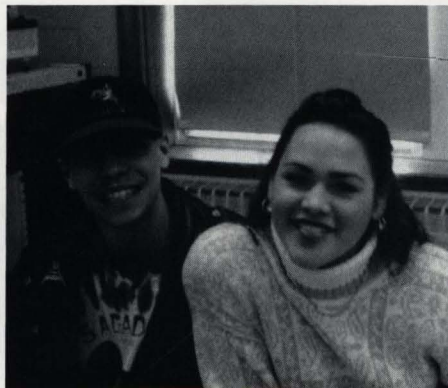

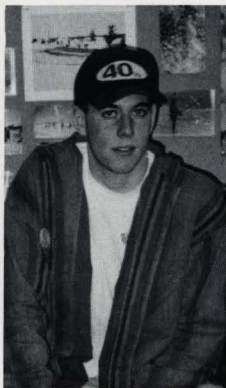

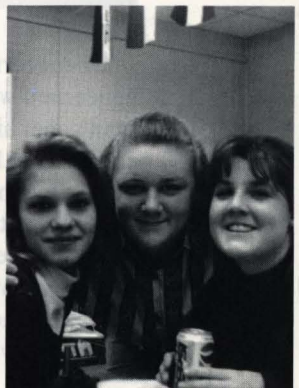

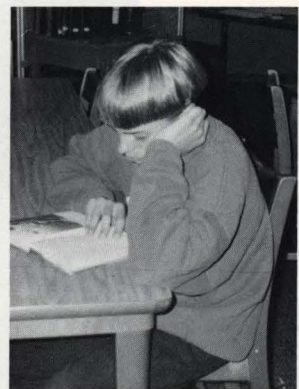

E Pluribus Unum

From One Come Many

From one come many. E pluribus unum. One might ask how this theme applies to Mattituck High School, a small, rural school set in the middle of nowhere, but there is a great diversity within these walls. Mattituck educates 700 very different personalities which make up the mass we live to call the student body.

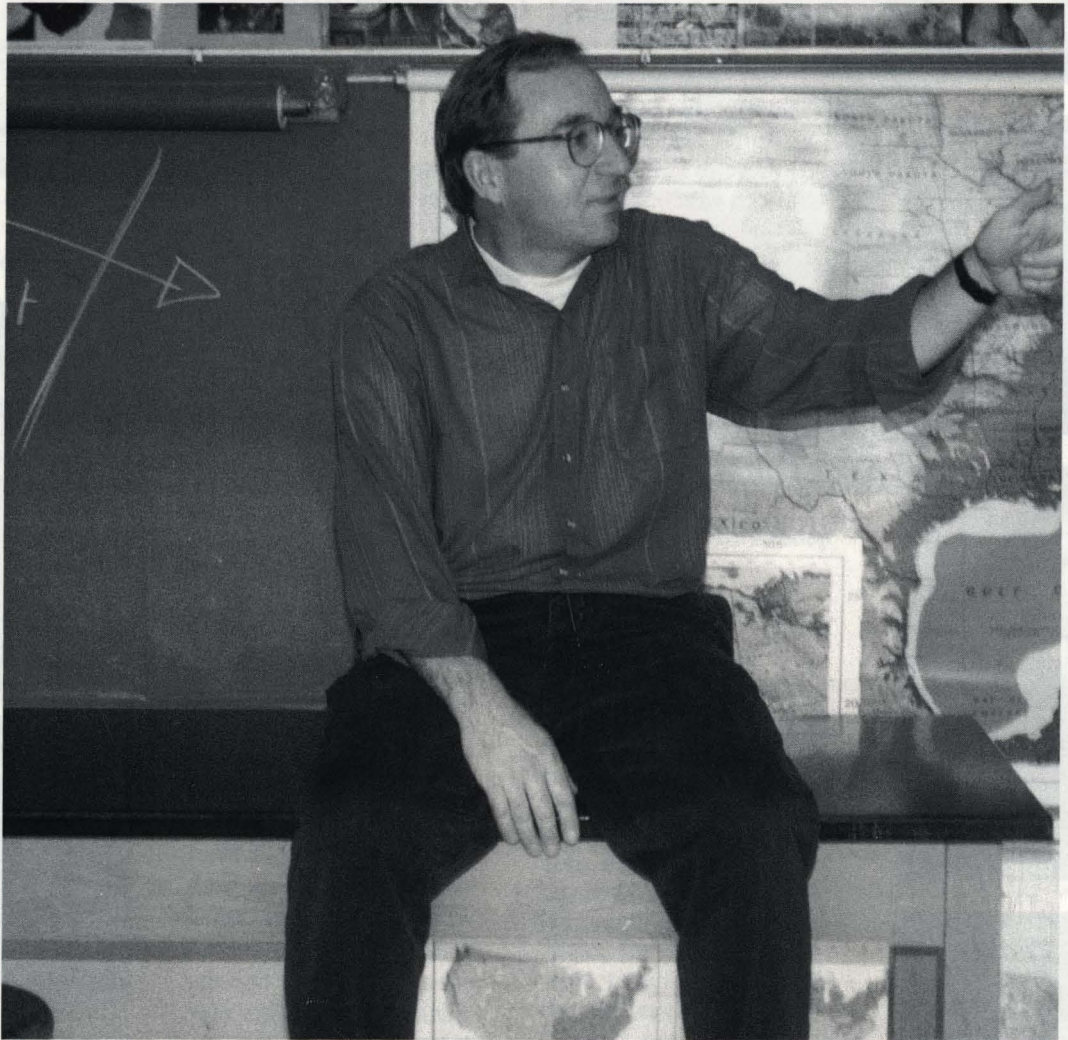

It is because of the diversity within this mass that each individual must learn to respect the unique characteristics of every person. It is through this respect that the individuals are able to form a cohesive group with relatively few major clashes and misunderstandings.

As each class ventures into the world they will be able to draw from the learning experiences they had, not only in mathematics and physics but also in accepting personalities and goals different from their own.

Dedication

Unconcerned with dates and times, very concerned with people, places and stories, this man's teaching habits are ever-so-slightly unconventional, always interesting. The purpose of this teacher's class is not to learn the exact time of day the new deal occurred to FDR, but the principles and ideals behind it. Of course, there are notes on the blackboard, photo copies and hand outs, but there is much more, there is a willingness to discuss any topic or tangent that may occur to the student, and there is an understanding that every idea is valid, every point worth discussion, however obscure. His ability to relate to the students reaches beyond the classroom onto the playing courts where his demeanor and technique make him a well liked coach. And so, for his many contributions both in and out of the classroom we the class of 1994 dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Robert Johnson.

Remember When . . .

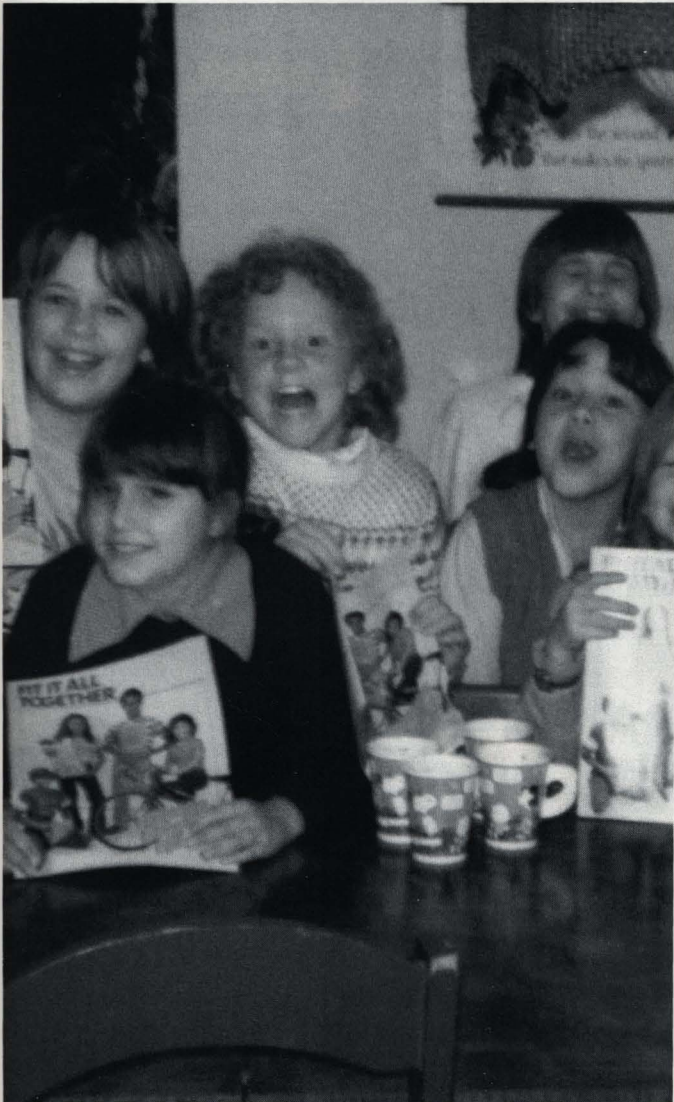

. . . we experimented with butterflies in the third grade.
. . . we were allowed to experiment with live crayfish.
. . . we did the bunny hop in the annual Easter Parade.
. . . He-Man and GI Joe were the heroes of every young boy.
. . . the challenger exploded.
. . . charm necklaces and bandanas were "in."
. . . everyone looked forward to the Strawberry Festival.
. . . the girls jumped rope as the boys played pickle
. . . you were "out of it" if you didn't have your Champion sweatshirt.

. . . Acid wash jeans, and scrunch socks, to go with your big hair.
. . . we "fiddled on the roof" in the sixty grade.
. . . people actually ran to lunch . . . and class.
. . . we protested the movie theatres.
. . . Aunt Fran, the tour guide, took us to the illustrious cafeteria School's for fine food and drink . . . if you could find a clean plate.
. . . Mr. Cunniff's spelling and map drawing technique, along with his obscure facts and omits, amazed us all.

. . . folding notes was our main form of artistic expression.
. . . nobody's bag was safe at the '93 Variety Show.
. . . worrying about getting into the "right" college took over our lives.

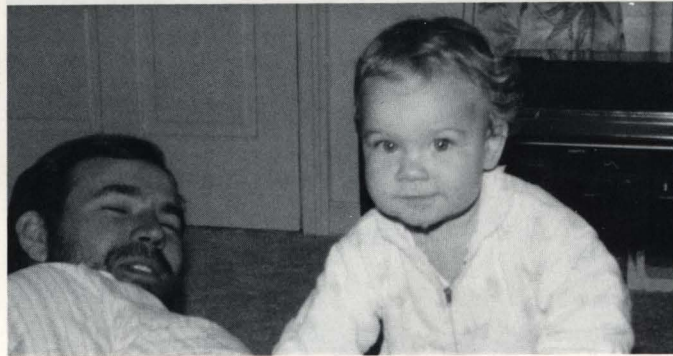

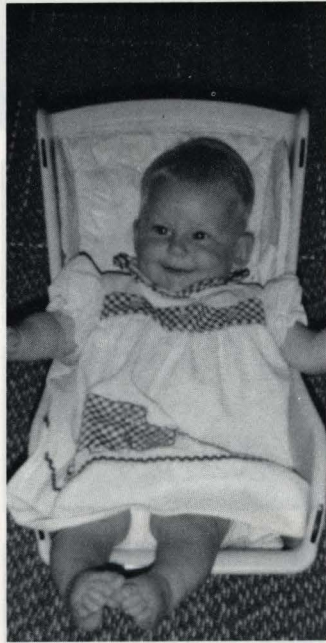

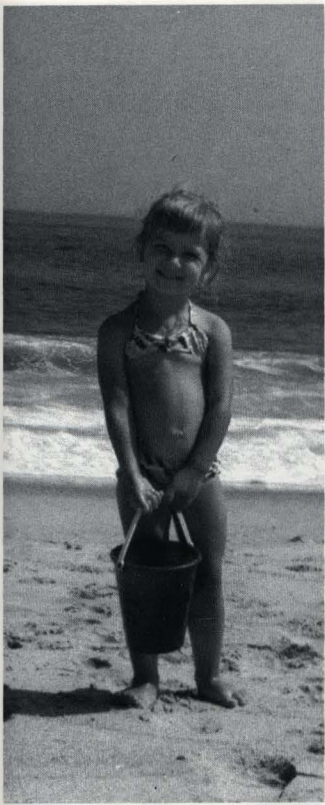

But, most of all, remember graduation from MHS, and your childhood.

Mattituck's Many Ups and Downs

This year normal everyday school life has had a little twist added to it. In addition to normal textbooks, chalk, and passing notes, students at MHS have had the privilege of watching the (sometimes) daily construction of an elevator. The addition of an elevator for handicapped accessibility has brought with it two new rooms to replace those which were lost to the elevator. The project began on September 17, 1993, and despite many setbacks, was successfully completed.

A large project — a job well done!

SAFE SEX: Antioch College in Ohio has a very specific rule to prevent sexual harassment: Students are instructed to seek verbal permission for each and every romantic overture. No more stolen kisses; ask first. And "yes" to a kiss doesn't imply permission for a hug; ask again. Et cetera, et cetera, from foreplay to all the way.

But does the Antioch rule really go far enough, or should a couple be required to put their requests and replies in writing?

Reserve Officers Training Corps

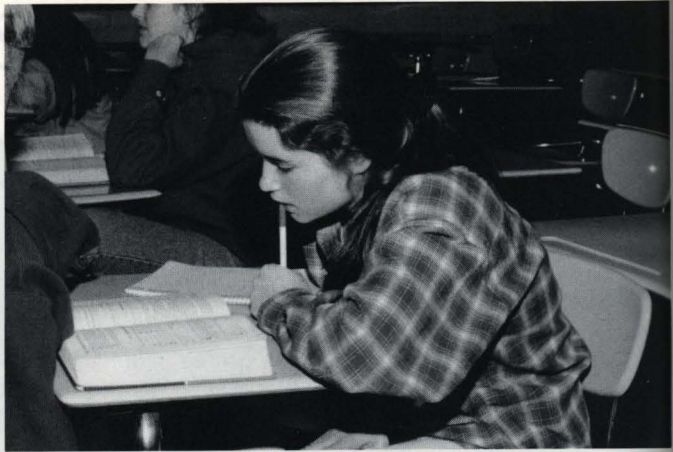

The NJROTC has been very active this year. The corps participated in many volunteer community projects such as singing Christmas carols at San Simeon, and selling tickets and ushering North Fork Choral concerts. The corps also helped within the school.

At basketball games, the color guard presents the colors as the National Anthem is played, and also the cadets raise the flag in front of the building in a militaristic fashion called flag detail.

The Drill team occupies much of the corps activities. Both the armed and unarmed contingents practice in the evening and try to earn first place awards in competition. The Drill teams also exhibit their routines at three major ROTC functions: The Annual Inspection, Pot Luck Dinner, and Annual Awards Dinner.

Expression

The 1994 Expression Magazine is celebrating its 23rd year. The school's literary magazine encourages all students grades 7-12 to express themselves through their poetry and prose. The dedicated staff spends many hours throughout the year choosing from all the talent and preparing for publication.

Helen Coster, a graduating senior expressed her love of poetry in her college essay: "An English teacher suggested that I enroll in a creative writing class. It was through this class that I finally discovered what I had been missing.

Poetry began to alter my outlook on life. I became filled with passion as I imbibed Frost and Dickinson and the magnitude of night and the incandescence of a firefly. Once on paper, my thoughts gained a mystical quality. I worked to ease the structure of my life that had been holding me back and blinding me from the beauty that lay unnoticed right before my eyes. After years of living half-naked, poetry taught me how to dress."

Coster, M. Groblewski, K. Fink, D. Slade, J. Martisen. Absent from picture: C. Morini and Ms. Nordstrom, Advisor.

The Matttalk

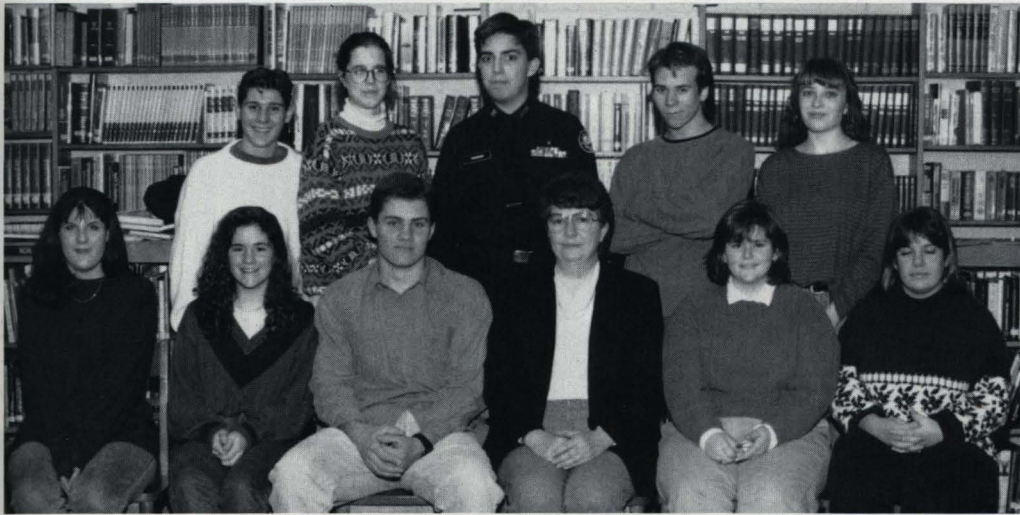

Whether the news is a new meal in the cafeteria or the election of a new Southold Town Supervisor, the Matttalk is always cracking a story. The staff is not as big as in former years, so some extra effort is required. Margaret Motto and Simon Raffel, as Editors-in-Chief, have worked long hours with the staff trying desperately to "put the paper to bed". The other editors include Anne Motto, Melissa Macnish, Maureen Westhall, Todd Giordano, Jim Martinsen, and Christie Gunther. They work within their own departments and help each other so that the paper is a success.

Without a doubt, there is no way the paper would even go to print without the help of the advisor, Mrs. Terry. She does everything and anything to help the staff—writing stories, typing, taking pictures, ANYTHING. Thanks to the staff, editors, and advisor, this has been yet another great year of journalism at MHS.

Editorial Board: Seated: M. Macnish, A. Motto, S. Raffel, Mrs. Terry, M. Motto, C. Gunther; Standing: T. Giordano, A. Weiss, D. Cavanaugh, J. Martinsen, M. Westhall (above, left)

The Yearbook

E Pluribus Unum

As always the yearbook office kept the lights burning often late into the night. Mrs. Gibbons, who took over the responsibility of Yearbook Advisor from Mr. Cortese, had basically three goals: to make the yearbook come out on time, raise $13,000 so that the book would pay for itself, and enlist enthusiastic staff.

During the summer she invited Liz Weisent, Kate Fink, and Rachel Bauer to attend a yearbook seminar at Trinity Preparatory School in Pawling, N.Y., where many new ideas were born. Have you noticed the messages parents submitted about their little "babies"? Special incentives were given to students who prepaid their book. Seniors received a free gold name imprint, 10% off regular price, and home-room delivery. This way they were guaranteed a book, and did not have to stand in line to purchase one. Advertising Sales also increased due to mass-mailings, telephone calls and personal visits to merchants. Best of all, Liz Weisent, Editor in Chief, guaranteed the book is to be in the hands of the student body not later than the first week in June. Happy yearbook signing to all!!!

Student Council

This year's Student Council strove to go above and beyond the work of past years, and succeeded in doing so. Not only did it continue the tradition of having a Christmas party for the Boces children, a Semi-Formal, and other inspiring events, but it also introduced new activities, including a Senior Citizens Trip and a Human Connections Day. One especially important attribute of the Student Council is the idea that everyone is included. All students are welcome to participate in meetings, fund raisers, or any other type of activity. Under the advisement of Mr. Barton, and with the help of Mrs. Pufahl, Pres. Alex Munz, V.P. Helen Coster, Sec. Kiersten Greene, and Tres. Kevin Christy, along with the rest of the group, were able to have a rewarding year.

Honor Society

This Year's Honor Society consisted of seventeen members. The Honor Society brightened every senior's birthday by announcing it each day. They also held a candy cane sale in December which helped to raise funds for scholarships and other worthy causes. The leadership positions for this year were as follows: President — Margaret Motto; Vice President — Dana Friemann; Secretary — Lena Maun; Treasurer — Eric Ganko.

Mathleague and Mathletes

Mr. Derrkoski is enthusiastically explaining a problem.

Mattituck High School participates in the New York Mathematics League (home team) and Suffolk County Interscholastic Math League (traveling team). Each league gives interested students the opportunity to compete against other schools and students in solving challenging mathematical problems. Membership is open to all students in grades 10, 11, and 12.

The junior high Mathletes compete in a similar arrangement. All students from grades 7-9 are eligible. The problems in Mathletes are geared to each individual grade level to match the skills and problems were difficult, the Mathletes strove to maintain their impeccable record.

Under the advisement of Mr. Deerkoski and Mrs. Scholand, both teams enjoyed stiff competition and great success this year.

Mentathlon

Mattituck Brains At Work

Mattituck High School participated once again in the annual two day Mentathlon competition. The first day was a double elimination tournament in which a five person team, consisting of Chris Abbott, Helen Coster, Kiersten Greene, Dennis Slade, and Kirsten Wheaton, competed in the Quick Recall competition against similar teams from twelve other East End schools.

The second day was a showcase for two person teams from seven academic divisions: Art: Corinne Flaherty and Jim Martinsen, Business; Chris Abbott and Chris Rasmussen, Language and Literature; James Herth and Lena Maun, Science; Matt Bauer and Eric Ganko, Math; Anthony Rutkowski and Sean Rodger, Social Sciences; Kiersten Greene and Dennis Slade, Speech and Theater: Helen Coster and Jason Pinson. MHS took first place in the Business and Speech and Theater competitions and second in the Social Sciences divisions.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club meets every Wednesday from 2:30 to approximately 3:15 throughout the year. Members work with a variety of textile and art supplies in completing numerous projects. Some examples include fabric paint design, quilting, and stenciling.

Another area of activity involves the preparation of quick nutritious snack foods and food projects which can be used as gifts.

Emphasis is placed on group cooperation and a commitment and desire to learn new skills and crafts.

German Club

The German Club had another active year. Their fund-raising efforts included selling candy, advent calendars, magazines, held yard sales, and did car-washes. The German Club does not hold regular meetings. Students only get together when they DO things. This year's activities included: several trips — one to Bethlehem, PA to learn about the Moravians, a group of German-speaking settlers, another to N.Y. City. Sankt Nikolaus came to their class and filled their shoes with candy, fruit and nuts. One night room 203 turned into a movie theater with all the trimmings: movie, popcorn, and soda. In the spring the group went to a German restaurant, held Wandertag, and went to Radio City Music Hall in N.Y. — They also participated in the annual Sprachfest, a Long-Island-wide German language competition. There never seems to be a dull moment when you belong to German Club.

The Variety Show

The 59th annual Variety Show was a smashing success. With its director Mr. Verity, and producers Matt Adonizio, Sean Corrigan, and Kirsten Wheaton, the show was packed with exciting new skits and entertaining dance routines. MHS moved away from monotonous jocularity to refreshing new comedies. There was quite a range of skits such as The Horses Are Ready and Kamikaze Briefing (in which an actual debriefing took place). There was also a few very touching harmonious duets including Secure Yourself and Love Will Come to You. Stephanie Simicich opened with a beautifully sung Star Spangled Banner, and the show closed with the ever-popular Twisted Mind. A heartfelt congratulations and many thanks go out to Mr. Verity for his seventeenth and final year as director of this most enjoyable show.

The Late Great Me

High School Play 1993

Last year's play, The Late Great Me, stunned audiences and had people all over the North Fork talking, and more importantly, thinking about alcohol and teenagers. The teen alcoholics, Geri (Sharon Strang) and Dave (Ryan Nichols), showed how alcohol can take over your life and ruin it in the process. Kate Laine (Devin Rodger) showed how alcoholism can effect anyone, and that there is a light at the end of the tunnel.

Directed by TOM Brennan and produced by Mike Bishal and Rebecca Dosh, the play was one of the most remarkable things to hit the M.H.S. stage! The play was based on Sandra Scoppentone's novel and adapted to script by David Roger. If nothing else, The Late Great Me set the standard for all theatrical performances to come.

Margaret Motto, the producer, says “This is a play about life.”

“Our Town”, by Thornton Wilder, is an American classic. It tells the story of two families, the Gibb’s and the Webb’s, in the early 1900’s. It takes place in Grovers Corners, New Hampshire. During the three acts the audience meets the characters, and over the time span of twelve years, watches them grow up and sees them grow old. Interestingly enough, Grovers Corners is a small town, very much like Mattituck. The people are friendly, but they thrive on gossip, like many small towns do. Mr. Brennan’s production is done in the traditional style of this play, in that no props or scenery are used: The actors must pantomime making breakfast, drinking, and just about everything. “Stage managers”, or narrators, let the audience know what is going on. In Mattituck’s production of this play the role of stage manager was shared by Helen Coster, Jason Pinson, and Liz Casey. The leads of Rebecca and George were played by Carolynne Harvey and Brian Rensy respectively. The cast which consisted of many newcomers to the stage of MHS, as well as some seasoned MHS performers, succeeded to make this play a real triumph for all who participated, and a pleasure for all who attended.

Boy's Varsity Soccer

This year's Boy's Varsity Soccer team proved itself to be much more than a group of mere boys. Anyone who watched their games would agree that these players had not only talent, but drive! Led by a new coach, Mr. Vasile-Cozzo (a.k.a. Coach Vas), and captains Eric McKenna and Matt Addonizio, the team began with a winning attitude and kept it all season. When asked about the team, the coach had this to impart:

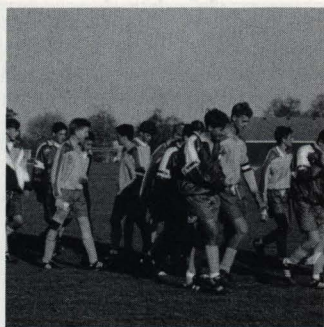

"My first year at Mattituck will always be a memorable one. Coming to a place that had such a rich soccer tradition, I did not know what to expect. What I found was a group of young men, who had the desire to be the best they could be. We worked hard and evolved into a team that really depended on each other to be successful. We may have lost in the county finals soccer game, but we won in the big game of Life. Our love and respect for each other will always be a cornerstone of the 1993 season. Remember guys: Attack Life with the passion you showed on the soccer field, and success will be at your fingertips." Love and Respect, Coach Vas

The team experienced great success in the regular season and advanced into the playoffs. Mattituck bids a fond farewell to all graduating players and looks forward to many more productive seasons.

Matt, Brendan, Che, and Eric pledge loyalty to their team.

Girl's Varsity Soccer

This soccer season the Girl's Varsity Soccer team experienced great joy and excitement, along with some disappointment. Through hard fought struggle and determination they earned the title of Undefeated League Champions. Although the team was disappointed over the loss of the county title, their outstanding playing and numerous accomplishments during the season gave them much pride and satisfaction. They always worked together as their skills complimented each other in all ways. One has to respect how hard the team worked to become the great team they are today. Over all, the Girl's Varsity Soccer team had a tremendous season.

Boys Cross Country

Who are the athletes pictured above? Well, you may have seen them around town running; running in the rain, running in the cold, running in the cold rain, etc. These are the members of the other fall sports; Cross Country.

Whether it's a seven mile run around Mattituck, speedwork on the track (despite it's condition), or a well-earned field trip to either the Powerlines or Sunken Meadow, the members of the Cross Country Team work hard seven days a week.

Coach Underwood was content with the season, but he expects even more success next year as the team has a good amount of strong young runners. The previous statement is in no way meant to disparage the performance of the team's seasoned runners who make all 3.1 miles look easy come race day. In fact, the team is especially proud of one such veteran, Jason Bagshaw, who earned a trip to the State Meet with a seventh place finish in the County Race.

To conclude, this year the team sends a sad farewell to veterans Rich Munch and Brad Rose as well as Bill Sparke who turned out a tremendous one year Cross Country Career. *

Girl's Cross Country

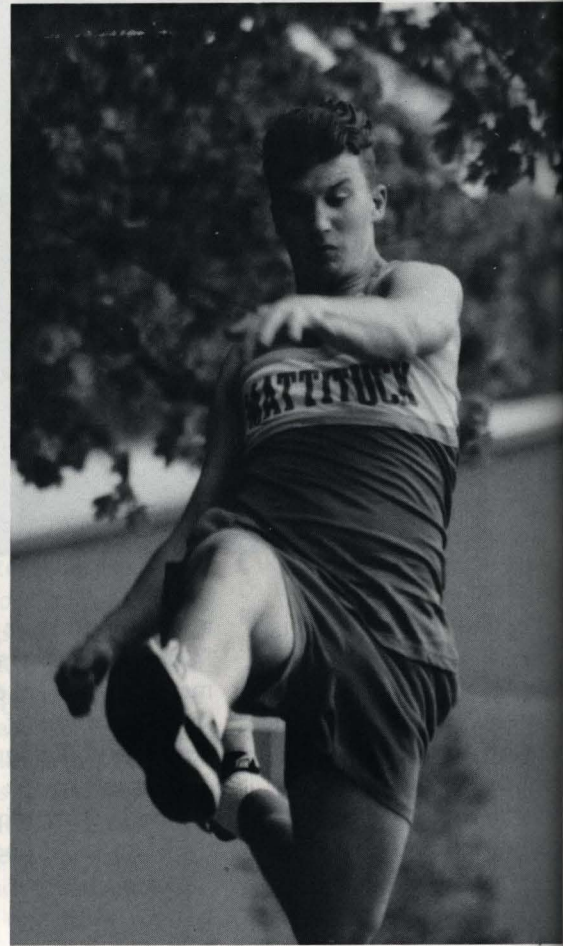

Small in size but big in spirit, this year's Girl's Cross Country Team gave enough devotion to keep a team of twenty runners working hard. To give an idea of just how committed these runners are, listen to their motto: "Only real runners eat raw meat and run naked in the snow." The loss of four runners due to old age took quite a toll on the team's competitive standings, but the team should be and is proud of it's performance. All the girls would like to send a great big hug to Coach Up's (Mrs. Downs), for the experience and support.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

This year's Boys' Varsity Basketball team had a rigorous season. Coach Huey guided the team through 18 tough games to come out with a record of 6-8 in the league and 2-2 in non-league play. The team's captains were seniors: Erik McKenna, T.J. Sidlauskas, and James Simmons. Lead scorer this year was also James Simmons. The team's toughest game this year was against South Hampton on Senior Night. Every member played, and played well in an excellent team effort. South Hampton later advanced to the Country Finals. This season's best win was against Rocky Point. Mattituck beat Rocky Point during the regular season, and both teams advanced to the playoffs. The team had an overall good season and will miss the graduating seniors next year.

Girl's Varsity Basketball

A Rebuilding Year

The 1993-1994 girls basketball team was a young and inexperienced team yet, hard-working and energetic. Their inexperience could be blatantly seen at times though they gave their all every minute of the game.

This team never quit or gave up in a game, no matter what the score might have been. This season was a rebuilding year with few seniors and juniors to lend leadership. Instead leadership, during and after a game, came from everyone:

the sophomores, juniors and seniors. It was an exciting and meaningful year for everyone who belonged to the girls varsity basketball program, with friendships indelibly forged.

Varsity Basketball Cheerleading

The Energy Makers

This was an excellent year for the Varsity Basketball Cheerleaders. Mr. Schiller's dynamic peppy girls led by co-captains Stacey Romanowski and Melanie

Mitchell added a certain energy to every basketball game, even when the team was losing. Every squad member did her best to make the energy that cheerleaders provide even stronger. Great smiles and hard work made this year's squad better than it has ever been. 1-3-4-2, Mattituck cheerleaders, We love you!

Varsity Wrestling

The Finest Wrestling In The East

The Varsity Wrestling team had a very successful season this year. In fact, it was the strongest season both individuals and the team has had in several years. The season ended with an impressive six wins and two losses.

The season started off strong with seven place finishes in the Patchogue-

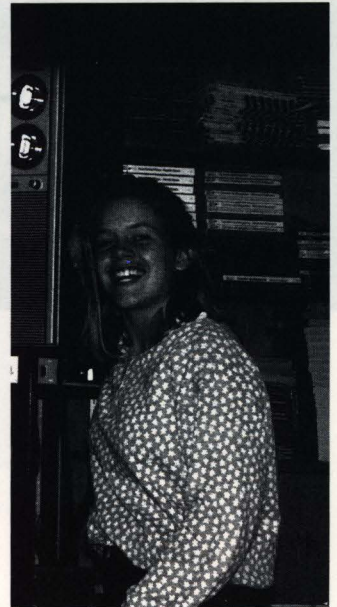

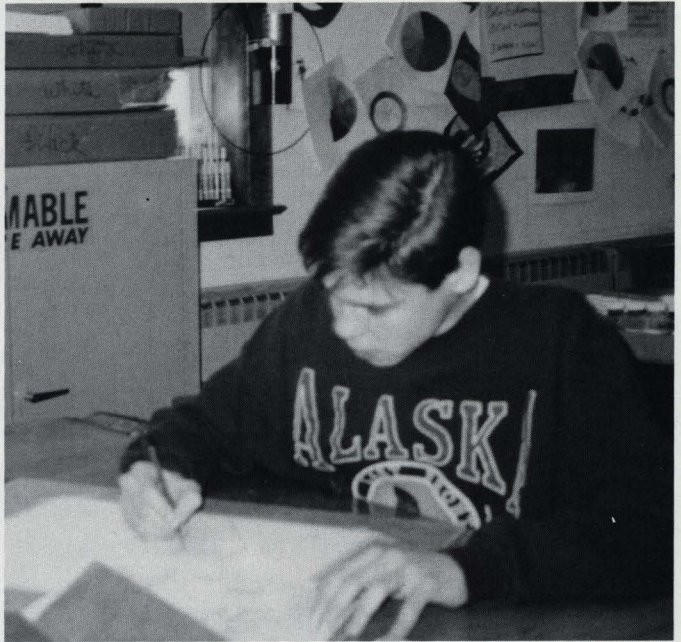

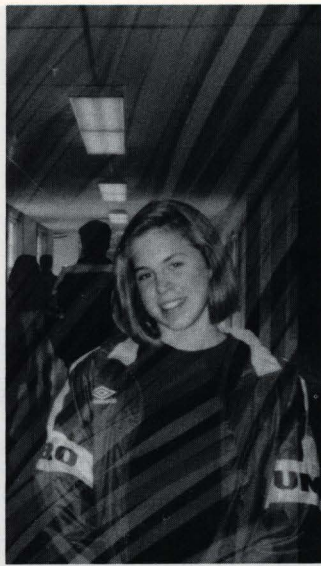

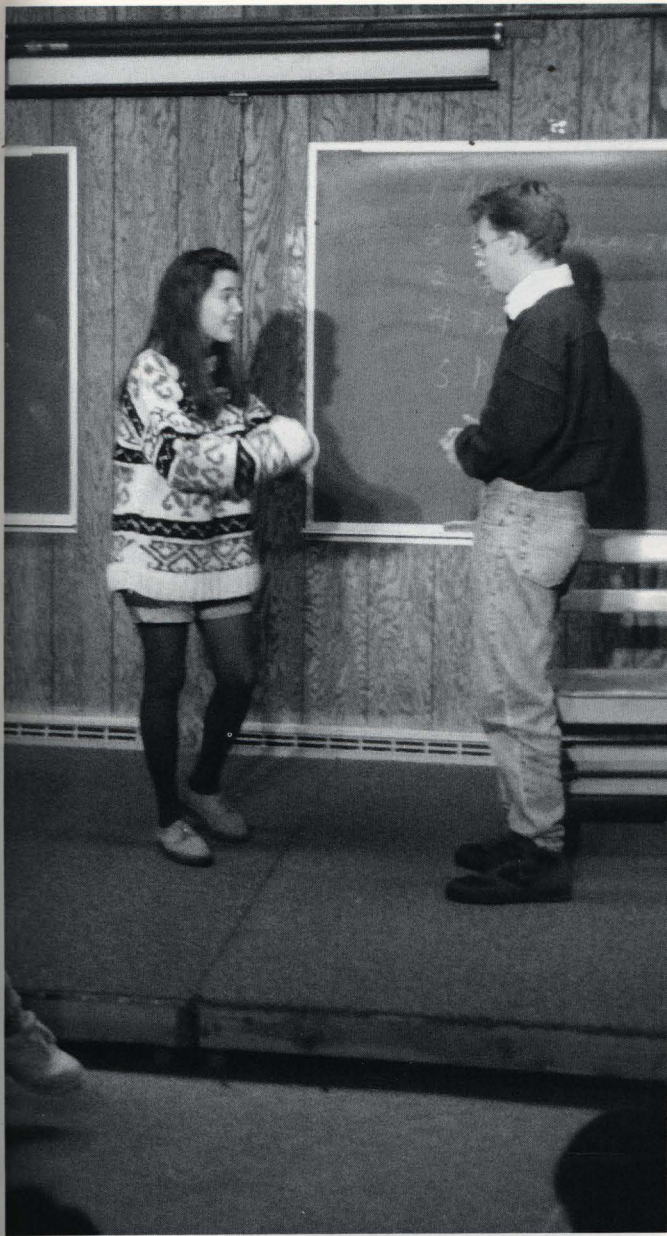

Medford tournament. The team continued it's good work with six place finishes in the south side tournament.

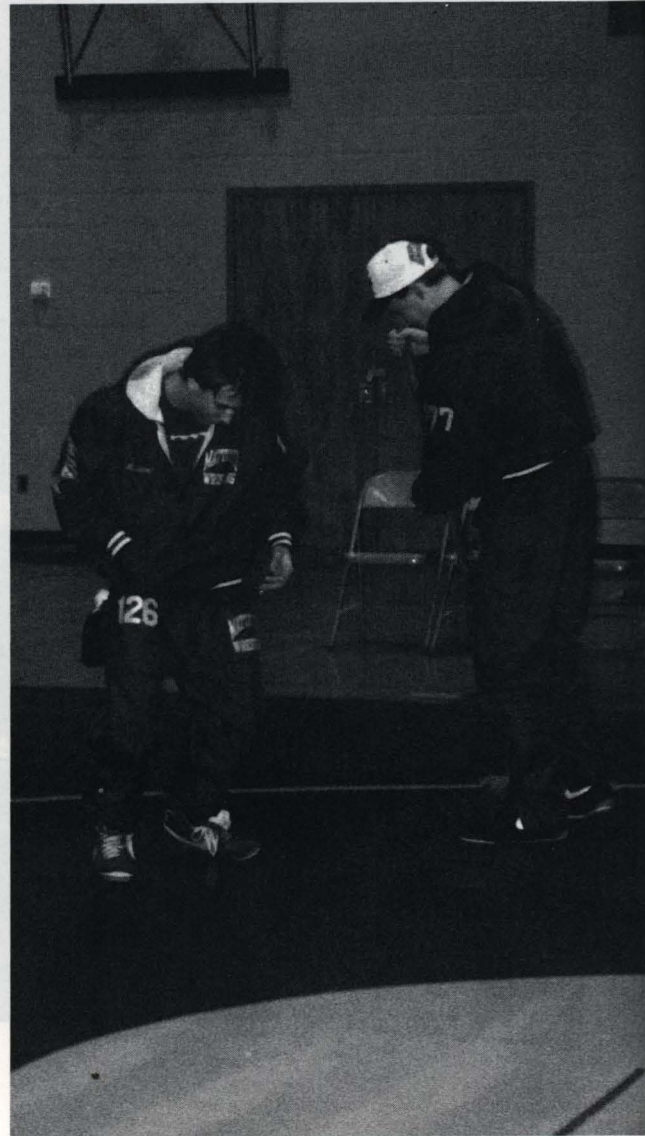

The team's hard work and dedication was easily seen during the duel meet season. Even though the competition was strong, the MHS wrestlers were able to complete the season with six wins and only two losses. Many of the wrestlers went on to place in both the league and country tournaments.

All in all, the team had a great season. Many thanks and much appreciation goes to the coaches whose support and advice helped greatly. Also the best of luck to next year's team.

Mr. Hubbard Retires

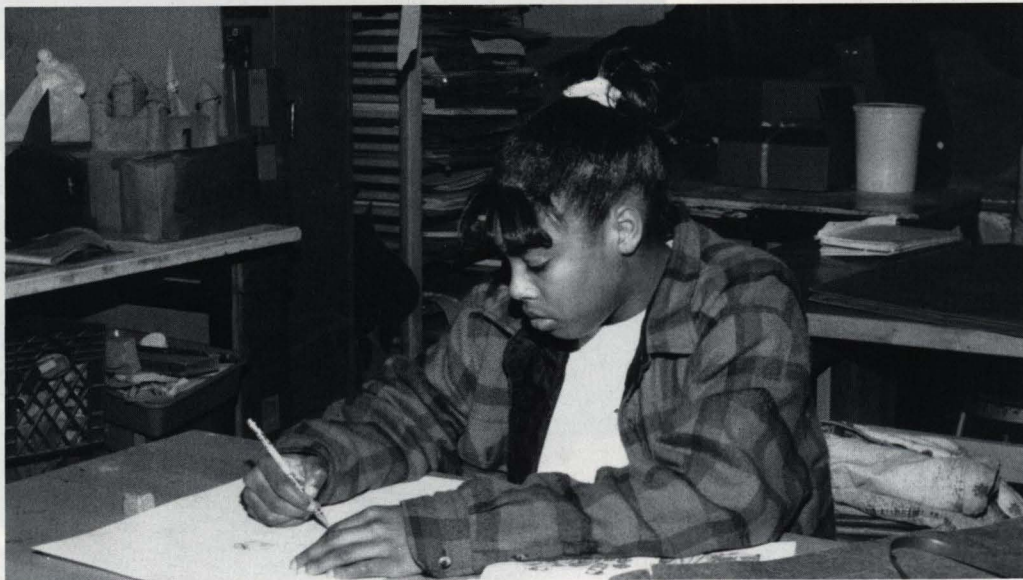

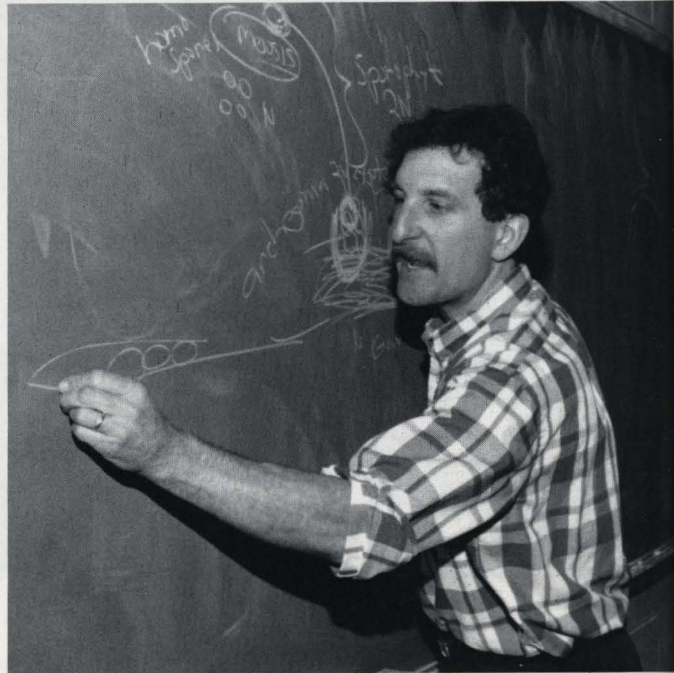

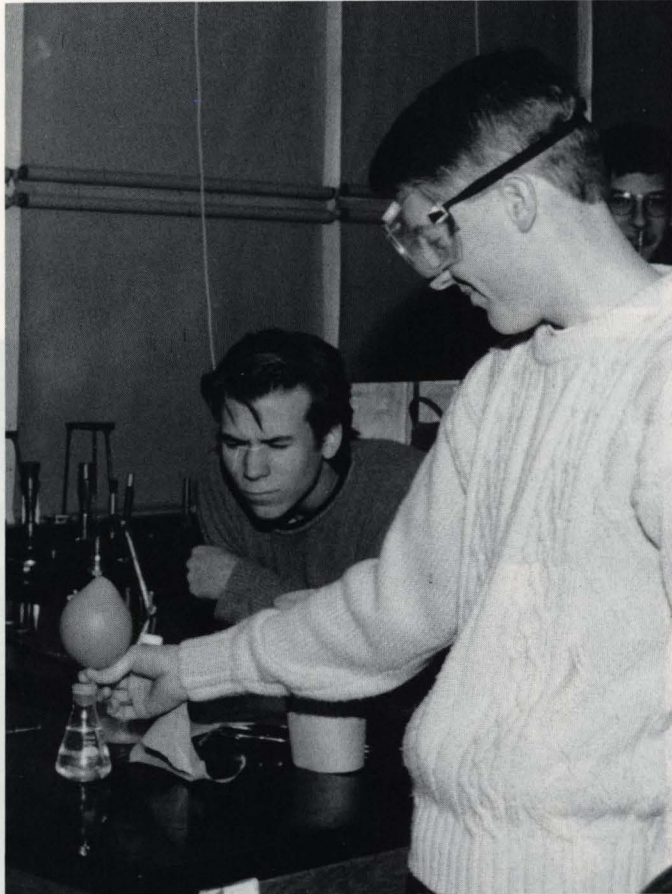

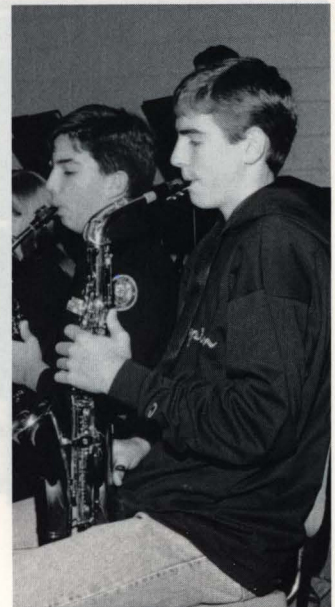

Did you know that Mr. Hubbard was a former professional boxer? When he married he became the father of nine children! Mr. Hubbard is now completing his 26th year as a custodian for M.H.S. He never took a sick day for the first 23 years!

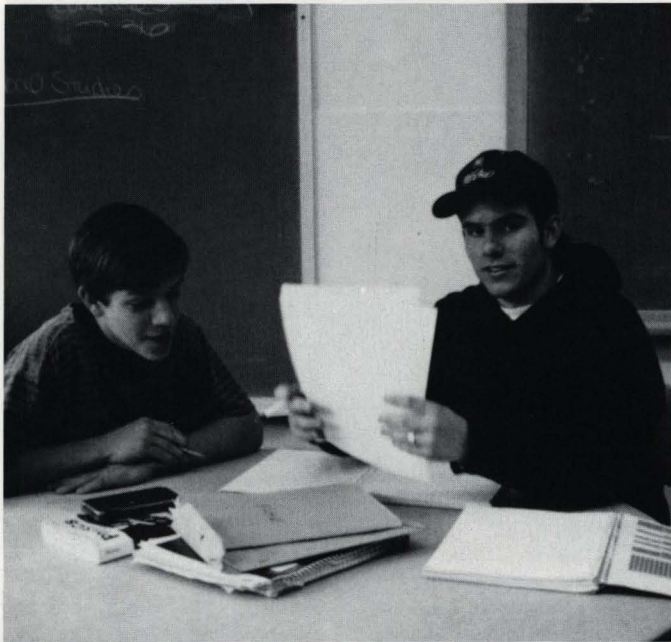

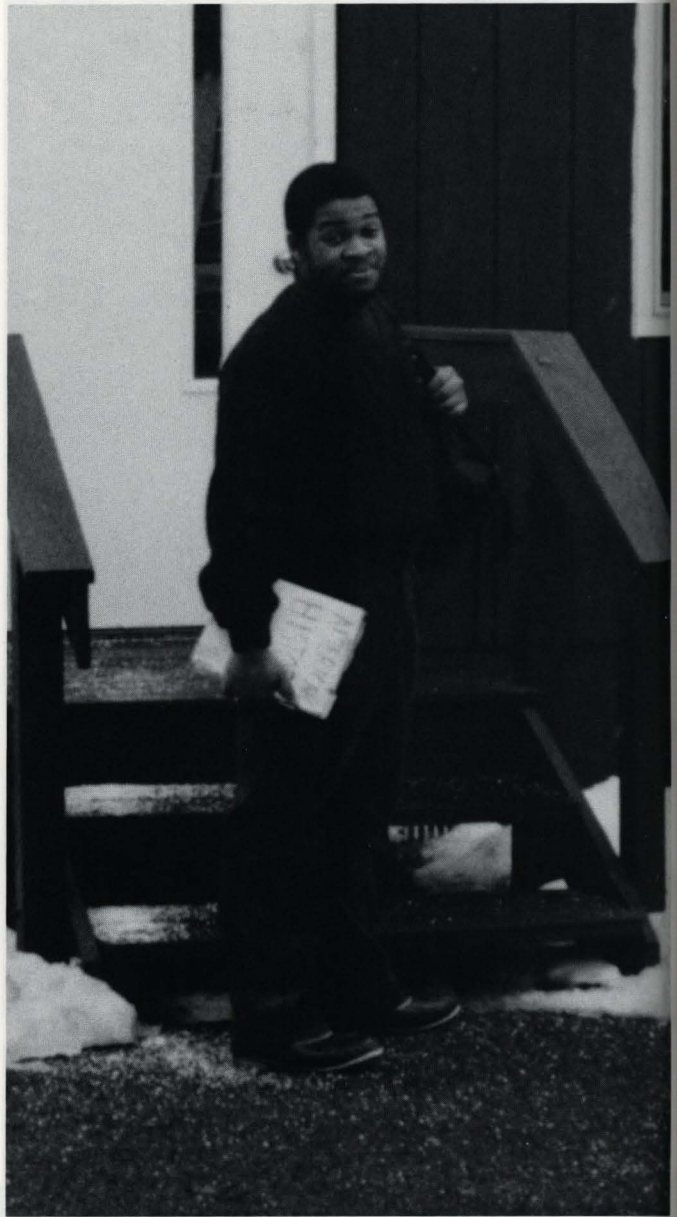

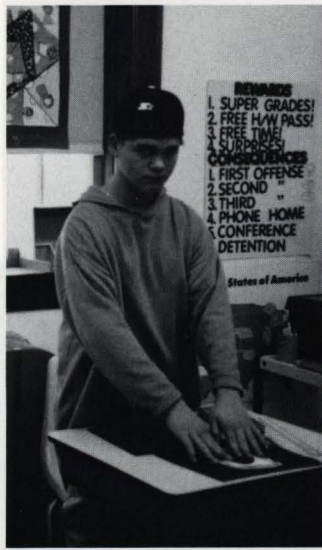

Everybody loves Mr. Hubbard! He is caring, generous, cheerful, and dedicated to do the best job possible for the school. For all this and his ready smile, we would like to thank Mr. Hubbard and wish him well in his retirement.

BABY

BOOSTERS

Brad,

Here's to the son, who knows where he's going and won't stop until he gets there, who knows not only what he wants from life, but what he has to offer in return.

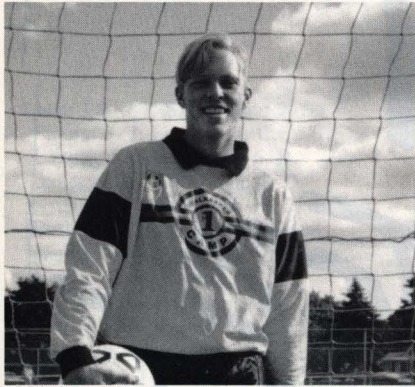

Here's to the son, who expects no more from others than he is willing to give, who meets life's challenges head-on and gracefully accepts both victories and disappointments.

Here's to the son who can be successful and self-confident without losing his ability to be understanding and compassionate.

Here's to your success, Brad!!!

Love,

your Mom, Dad, David and Kevin

Dear Jimmy,

When you were small, our favorite name for you was Snooks. As you grew older, you decided your name was to be Jimmy. From that time forward, you have sought to make your own decisions in a quiet, but forceful way. You are gracious and courageous. Your trademark is your smile that lights up a room when you enter. You have given Dad and I only happiness, and we are proud of the person you have become. We know that you have what it takes to achieve the goals you set for yourself in life.

Love, Mom & Dad

You are the best brother

I could ever have.

Love, Erik

Dear Jimmy,

You are a kind and thoughtful person and a great joy to us as a grandson!

Our love,

Grandma and Grandpop

Dear Melanie,

When the youngest child of a family comes into the World, one of the last things that parents think about is the fact that this child will eventually grow up and graduate from high school. We are no different, and you are that child. In our hearts, you will always be that child even though you have grown into a fine young woman whose life after M.H.S. is about to begin. We can wish no more than for you to be happy and to never stop reaching for whatever you want out of life.

We are very proud of you and congratulate you for a job well done!

We Love You,

Mom & Dad
XXXOOO

Dear Buggy,

You are our Pumpkin, our Reading Machine, our Sweet Bug-aboo. We'll always be grateful that God chose us to be your family. We're so very proud of all your successes and behind you all the way in every new adventure!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Jeremy & Ben

Dear Helen,

Even then we knew.

Your future success is limitless. How exciting to be beautiful, bright and possess great character and spirit! Watch out World. Here comes Helen!!!

Thank you Lord for our children.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Schnoozer —

You are such a loving, caring person, and I'm so proud to be your mom. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments.

Looking at this picture, I wonder how a lifetime of memories can seem like no time at all. "For everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven." A time to hold on and a time to let go ... So many dreams to dream and follow after ... We may not know what the future holds for you, but with your incredible insight, experiences, and sense of humor, you will meet the challenges. May God bless you and keep you as you create new tapestries. "We'll love you forever, our baby you'll be!"

Mom and Dad

Dear Liz,

Your smile will always light your way. We are proud of you!

Love always, Mom & Dad

Frankie,

Words can never tell you how happy you've made us all these years ... There's never been a dull moment with you around, 'cause we never know what you'll do next.

We love you very much!

Mom, Dad, Alicia, Iya and Pop

Dear Art,

It's a tough job, but somebody's got to do it!

Love, Ma & Pa

Dear Alyson,

We are very proud of all your effort that you put into making your school years successful. It has been an incredible journey since you entered Kindergarten, and now you are graduating.

Our greatest wish for you is that you enjoy a happy and healthy future in whatever you do. We love you very much! You're forever in our hearts.

Love, Mom & Dad

Dear Crystal,

You've waited so long for this day to come, and now your dreams have come true. We can see by your smile how happy you are, and that makes us honored to be your parents. All we ask of you is to do your very best in life. We are so proud of the person you are, and the person you have become. You have accomplished so much, and we are with you every step of the way. Congratulations!

Where the Potted Palm Grows (or not)

When we first decided to take on the project of creating a yearbook we, or at least I, didn't know how much work it would actually be. We started with a staff of around forty people and ended up with a few dedicated workers. I can't say working on this book has always been a pleasure either. There were nights I wanted to throw it all away and leave, but luckily I didn't and neither did the few other dedicated editors. It is important to me that people are content with this book. We did our best, and some people failed us, but we did not want that to extend to your dissatisfaction. I personally am pleased with this book's outcome, and content that we "pleased most of the people most of the time." L.W.

Well it's over. My first thought in taking on the task of producing the yearbook was it's only one hundred and sixty pages, how hard can that be. IT WAS VERY HARD, but I survived. I'm not quite sure how; cause for the last seven months a little creature has been sucking on my brain — his number is 4771. Just as the palms started out full and slowly died, so did my mind. I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to my mother for all the driving, hosting, and encouraging she did throughout the year. To Kate and Liz I have two words: Buck Buh and to the fourth, three: CRY ME A RIVER!!!!!!
R.B.

I have an entire column in a permanent book to say whatever I want. The last thing I want to talk about is this book. I haven't talked about anything else for the last seven months. I just want to say goodbye in some ink that won't fade, and thank you: to my parents for letting me stay out late with these wild pak books, to my fellow editors, for all the obvious reasons, and to my fellow editor's family for putting up with me at their house. To the palms, rest in peace... K.F.

The Evolution of a Yearbook Editor

We sincerely thank: Mrs. Gibbons, for your encouragement, support and pizza runs (we hope we haven't ruined you for next year), Gail for your long nights, soft lectures, and doughnuts (and we're not just saying this to get a better dinner — Buck Buh), Mrs. Schiller, whose tissues and computers kept us going throughout (your tissue fund is now 75 cents richer), and George, our friendly 2nd floor custodian (your tolerance for little yellow sticker tabs, and big messes amazes us).

Without your contributions, this yearbook would not exist,
... and neither would three editors.
