Yearbook Dedication

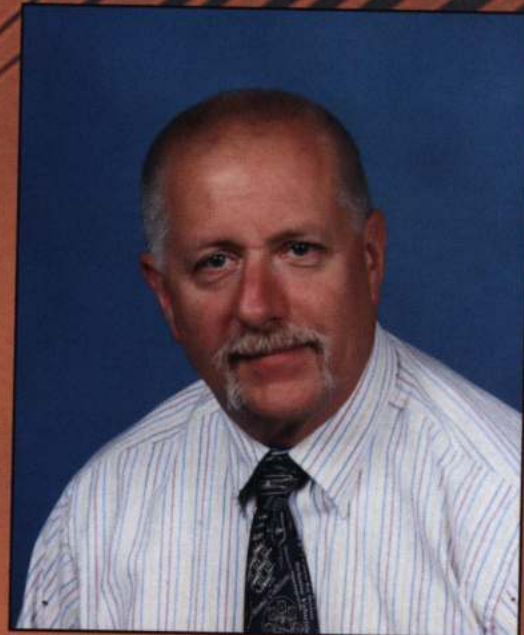

Mrs. Ruland

One of the most admirable qualities one can display is not their ability to be successful, but maintaining a humble attitude despite their remarkable achievements. Our first dedication goes to a loving, kind, and compassionate woman who has left a positive impression on every one of her students. Making AP Biology seem easy, many would agree that Mrs. Ruland is a phenomenal teacher and even life coach. The great amount of enthusiasm and energy she puts into every class motivates us all to become better students and even better human beings. Her cheery smile and positive attitude, even through gruesome dissections of frogs and ferrets, make it hard not to enjoy her class and appreciate her love for science. Out of the classroom, Mrs. Ruland's kindness shines through with her leadership in the school's Community Service Organization, constantly looking for ways to help others and make a difference in our community. Many would agree that Mrs. Ruland is a remarkable person who has left a positive impact on the Class of 2015, and we are honored to dedicate this year's yearbook to her.

Mr. DeCaro

You should know that when you walk into Mr. DeCaro's Physics class, you're in for a unique and amazing educational experience. Whether it be using a microwave to set things on fire, dropping bowling balls, lying on a bed of nails, or somehow incorporating The Mexican Hat Dance into a normal class routine, you should know you're somewhat safe in his class (unless you get three questions wrong in a row on a test). With every class guaranteed to be filled with laughter and incredible physics that many of us can't wrap our minds around, Mr. DeCaro definitely helps to make our Mattituck experience an amazing and unforgettable one! Extending his role beyond physics teacher, Mr. DeCaro has tremendous school spirit and shows great support for all. Keeping tabs on not just Mattituck athletics and his championed varsity baseball team, but also on the various events and theatrical performances we have here at MHS, we all would like to thank him for his unmatched display of Mattituck pride. On behalf of the Class of 2015, we are honored to dedicate this year's yearbook to him.

Dear Class of 2015,

Our journey through high school is coming to a close. The years at MHS seemed to fly by, but at the same time, seemed to drag on as if we had been here a lifetime. We have been roaming these same halls for six years, since we were twelve and thought that the school pizza was such an upgrade from the elementary school food. However, our journey together goes back much farther than that. Many of us have been calling each other friends and classmates since before we can even remember. We will be saying goodbye to the people who have been such a tremendous part of our lives. How weird is it that our time has finally come to leave and show off our "college and career readiness" which we have heard so much about over the years?

Soon we will burst through this little bubble of Mattituck High School. We are overcome with emotions of anxiety, excitement, fear, and anticipation, as we will no longer be high school students with the comfort of familiar faces, the security of a well-known environment and the cozy feeling of home.

Within these walls we have learned the Pythagorean theorem, and that hyperbole is not pronounced "hyperbowl." We have been taught about atoms, the Bill of Rights and hopefully, we can still recall how to say, "where's the bathroom" in more than one language.

But more than all of that, we have attained a sense of compassion, responsibility, and thoughtfulness. Since the days when we wanted to rip each other's heads off in freshman year Global over our different opinions, interests and beliefs, we have come to realize that our distinctive qualities are what make our class vibrant. 139 different faces, 139 different personalities, who in this one little school have grown up to become unique individuals who will leave the confines of these walls to go on to do remarkable things.

We have discovered where our passions lie and that our differences are what make us strive. We are dedicated scholars. We are champion athletes. We are brilliant musicians. We are accomplished cadets. We are talented artists. We are gifted actors. Each one of us has a special skill, flair, or knack, which has blossomed with the help of the nurturing staff here at Mattituck. As a class we have grown to accept and respect each other's individual differences.

We have learned from the emotional rollercoaster that is high school that change is a part of life. And now we are faced with the biggest change of our young lives: graduation. No matter where our diverging paths take us from here- we will always have this little town of Mattituck in common- to thank for all the memories that have shaped us into who we are and who we will become.

Wishing you all success and happiness.

Love Always, Lisa

The background of the page is a complex, abstract design. It features a color palette of various shades of orange, from deep, dark tones to light, pale ones. The design is composed of several overlapping elements: thick, flowing, ribbon-like swirls that create a sense of movement; a grid of small, white dots on an orange background, which is partially obscured by the swirls; and a large, faint, stylized number '2' that serves as a subtle watermark or background element. The overall effect is a textured, layered composition.

You can be anything you want to be. You have always tried everything! The possibilities are endless for you.

We are so proud.

Dear #1 Son Joshua!

Wow, where do we begin? One of our most vivid memory of you when you were little was when you taught yourself how to ride a bicycle..we were VERY fearful, FULL of Admiration and learned so much from you right from the start! You sure have come a long way from then, growing, painfully at times, all along the way. We honestly couldn't be more proud of you. You've grown into a mature, handsome, hardworking young man which we attribute in part to your great role models growing up. We are very grateful for those positive influences.. Coach Fred, Coach Anthony and the entire Parlato family, Rabbi and Sandy, inspired fantastic guidance that left indelible memories that helped form you into the person you are today. Each and every experience you've grown from. You've got the biggest heart, a million dollar smile and unlimited potential! We look forward to continuing to watch you grow through life's experiences and will always be there to help. Josh, the best is yet to come! Congratulations on your graduation! Don't celebrate too much! And, remember, follow your dreams, never give up and never settle!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Megan

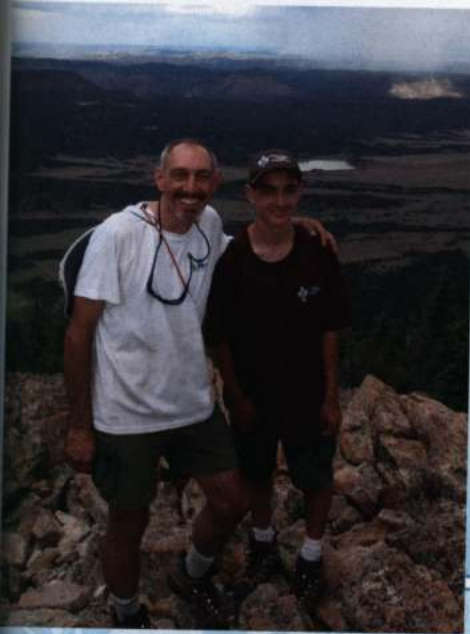

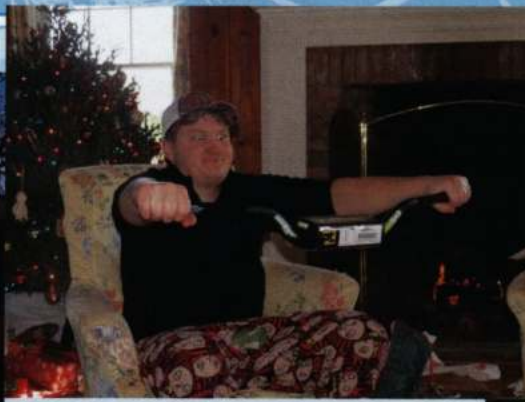

Dear Harrison,

We couldn't be prouder of you or love you more!!!! Over the years we have watched you become a strong, self-reliant and confident young man. Attending RIT is the first of many wonderful opportunities that lie ahead for you. Stay true to yourself and you will be successful in everything you do! We love you Harrison! Congratulations!

Dear James and Ian,

It is hard to believe when we look at our 6'3" sons and the things we remember are Power Ranger pajamas, Pinewood Derby, Little League, pokemon cameras, Dinosaur Bob, Dunks of Fury and birthday parties with your buddies (who are still your buddies on varsity baseball). It has been a pleasure to have sons like you, we look forward to watching where life takes you next! We are so proud of both of you!

The Adventure, Continuing the Journey

Boy Scouts of America, Troop 39, Mattituck, NY

The rank of Eagle is the pinnacle of scouting. In order to become an Eagle Scout, a young man must first meet many requirements including leadership, first aid, community service and outdoor survival skills. The culmination of an Eagle Scout's trek is a comprehensive, labor-intensive project designed to benefit the community or a non-profit organization. This prestigious rank is only attained by 5% of all young men in scouting. Reaching Eagle Rank provides guidance for a young man to utilize throughout his lifetime.

Troop 39 is honored to announce members of the class of 2015 who achieved the rank of Eagle Scout:

Adam Steele

Jon Jacobs

Ryan Dabrowski

A scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.
