DEDICATION

Mr. Deerkoski is always there to answer our questions no matter how small. He always greets us with a smile and brightens our day with a math related joke. We have learned so much from him, he has math down to a science. For some of us math has never been our strongest subject, but Mr. Deerkoski has the patience and intellect to help all of us through. He is always available for extra help after school and at lunch, he works tirelessly to help his students understand the lesson. His endless reserves of patience combined with his no nonsense teaching style are why we respect him greatly. Whether or not we love math, all of us can agree that we learned a great deal from Mr. Deerkoski.

RETIREMENT

This teacher has been apart of our school district for over 30 years, teaching, guiding, educating, and mentoring the students, faculty, staff, and administration on how to better themselves, their education, or the situation they're in. His knowledge, preparation, and professionalism are second to none, as well as his ability to connect with the students. Mr. Roslak has been an amazing teacher, colleague, and friend to many of us. He has worked his entire career trying to better this school community, having students learn not just what was required, but to learn about life as well. Mr. Roslak has created an atmosphere that is open and allowed students to grow as individuals without the strict confinements of traditional classrooms. Among his many accomplishments, such as Educator of the Year, Mr. Roslak has transformed our educational environment for the better. He will be greatly missed by many, and leaves very large shoes to fill, which will take several people to do so. The administration, faculty, staff, students, and former students would like to wish Mr. John Roslak best of luck in his new endeavor, retirement.

Charles Zaloom

To the Class of 2016,

We're finally here. We made it. The end of our public education has come and gone.

For the past few months, I've tried to figure out how to make this final goodbye memorable, unique, and special. It wasn't until a few weeks before Mr. Jablonski needed my final copy that I realized it's not up to me to make this year memorable: all of you have already done that.

Throughout our high school years, everyone has told us to cherish each and every little thing because our time together will end quicker than we can imagine. I know that most of our responses to this constant idea were to push it off and deny the underlying truth. Time does fly. Remarkably, we were in this building for 1,080 school days. Even scarier, we sat through 9,720 periods that seemed to never end. But what do all these numbers mean? They add up to thousands of moments together and hundreds of memories.

Above all, the memories we made as seniors trump all the rest. For starters, no one was suspended after decorating the school - even though we may or may not have set off fireworks in the school parking lot. We continued to prove our greatness by sweeping almost event in the Tucker Bowl, which led to our second consecutive victory. In celebration, we became the first class to have a hotdog barbeque in the senior hallway. We were the first class to have AP Euro and Mr. Frend's famous Environmental class; and the last senior class to sing in the basement and have Mr. Roslak as a teacher.

However, the most significant part of our time together wasn't these things. Our class has grown incredibly close over the years. Of course we've had our differences, whether it was in a heated debate in government class or an intense game of gym volleyball. But, we left nothing unsaid and we took all our chances, because we knew what really mattered: these were our last days together.

After graduation, our lives as adults will begin, and many of us will move far away. But no matter how far you go, or how long you stay, never forget the wonderful things that have happened during our time together. I hope that in 10, 20, or even 30 years from now, you take this yearbook off the shelf and remember all the great times we've had together.

Finally, to anyone who thinks our time here wasn't worth anything: take a look around. This is our legacy.

Dear Our Precious Daughter Allie,
 In a blink of an eye you've grown into a beautiful wonderful young woman. You've been blessed with strength, joy, love, and compassion. Use these gifts to help you meet new challenges. Your journey will be filled with twists and turns, embrace the adventure it brings. Look towards your faith and listen to your heart and head when seeking answers. Always remember how much you are loved. We wish you peace happiness, and God's blessings. His plan for you is amazing.
 Love, Dad, mom, and Bobby.

There's two things I know for sure
 She was sent here from heaven
 And she's daddy's little girl
 As I drop to my knees by her bed at night
 She talks to Jesus and I close my eyes
 And I thank God for all of the joy in my life
 Oh but most of all

For butterfly kisses after bedtime prayer
 Stickin' little white flowers all up in her hair
 Walk beside the pony daddy it's my first ride
 I know the cake looks funny daddy but I sure tried

Oh with all that I've done wrong
 I must have done something right
 To deserve a hug every mornin'
 And butterfly kisses at night

Sweet 16 today
 She's lookin' like her mama a little more every day
 One part woman the other part girl
 To perfume and make up from ribbons and curls
 Trying her wings out in a great big world
 But I remember

Butterfly kisses after bedtime prayer
 Stickin' little white flowers all up in her hair
 You know how much I love you daddy
 But if you don't mind
 I'm only gonna kiss you on the cheek this time

Oh with all that I've done wrong
 I must have done something right
 To deserve her love every mornin'
 And butterfly kisses at night

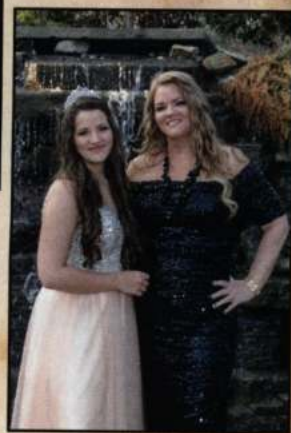

All the precious time
 Like the wind the years go by
 Precious butterfly
 Spread your wings and fly

She'll change her name today
 She'll make a promise and I'll give her away
 Standing in the bride room just staring at her
 She asked me what I'm thinkin'
 And I said I'm not sure
 I just feel like I'm loosin' my baby girl
 And she leaned over

Gave me butterfly kisses with her mama there
 Stickin' little white flowers all up in her hair
 Walk me down the isle daddy
 It's just about time
 Does my wedding gown look pretty daddy?
 Daddy's don't cry

Oh with all that I've done wrong
 I must have done something right
 To deserve her love every mornin'
 And butterfly kisses

I couldn't ask God for more than this is what love is
 I know I've got to let her go but I'll always remember
 Every hug in the mornin' and butterfly kisses

Samantha, we are so proud of you. You have become such a beautiful young lady. You are such a great role model for your little sister. She wants to be just like you. We know you are going to be successful in whatever you set your mind to. The sky's the limit Baby. P.S. What are you tome? That's right, my Sweet Love.

Message for our son Jeff

Dear son congratulations for graduating from high school. Jeff words aren't even enough to describe all the wonderful things we find in a marvelous son like you. We are extremely proud of you because you are barely 18 and have accomplished many great things. NO!! That's what I said when I put you on the bus to go to Kindergarten. I was putting you in Mr. Breiner's care. Cutoque East, yes I followed the bus. Mr. Breiner was so young, you gave him quite a run for his money. I don't think he continued teaching! The Plays were so much fun, you always stood out, always in your role. Very dramatic, of course. It was fun helping you get ready for the Military Ball. Great pictures, we love the Senior Chief, he was so good to you, we will always remember him with great appreciation. Never slept out and then went to Peru. I don't think I slept that week, yes I texted your teacher, I had to!!! The Prom, thank God for the girls, who was that guy that was your date? Did you ever talk to him again? Mr. Rosenbaum, where's the Starbucks? I am forever grateful for having a safe and trustworthy person for you to go to, anytime (and all the time?)!!! Pedro would be proud. Seriously, I'm so proud of you and excited for you to go to College, it's awesome Kaitlyn. You're a great kid, you have stuck to your values, principals and honesty. Few bumps in the road but came out strong. We have to especially thank Mr. Dave Smith, without him I'm sure you would have made it through, not sure if I would have. There is a true Halo waiting for that man. God Bless you Mr. Smith. You started braiding your own hair around 3,4 years old. You looked at pictures and would come out with the same style. This is a gift that will bring you very far in life. Be proud. You worked to pay for your Cosmetology Kit and now you're going to college to learn Business and will have your own Salon someday. I am excited to watch it all unfold. You deserve all the best life has to offer. You will touch many people, you already have. Congratulations and God Bless you my daughter. Go get that Diploma with your head high, I cannot wait to give you your Graduation Present!!

Raven, we are all very proud of you as you begin the next step of your journey. You continue to impress us with your intelligence, kindness and fearlessness, as well as your desire to test yourself, to try new things and acquire new skills.

Your curiosity and passion will serve you well for the rest of your life.

We Love You!

Out of the night that covers me,
 Black as the pit from pole to pole,
 I thank whatever gods may be
 For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
 I have not winced nor cried aloud.
 Under the bludgeonings of chance
 My head is bloody, but unbowed.

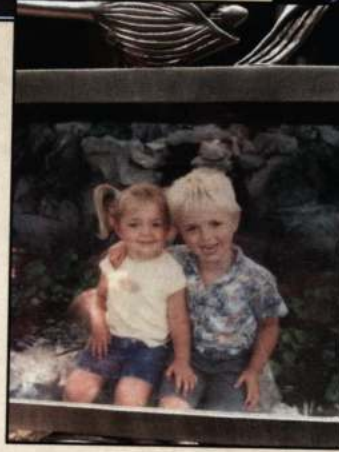

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
 Looms but the Horror of the shade,
 And yet the menace of the years
 Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
 How charged with punishments the scroll,
 I am the master of my fate,
 I am the captain of my soul.

We are so proud of you Bill! Enjoy the ride! It was always meant to be. Love
 Mom, Corey, Joey, Izzy, and Bella
