2020

Mattituck
Jr. Sr. High School Class Of 2020

Editors: Halle Foster and Anna Burns

To the class of 2020,

It's about that time. It's finally over. Our high school career has come and gone. Look at us. Who would've thought?
Not me.

When I was told I had to write a letter for the yearbook, I didn't know where to start. I read past yearbooks, wrote down all of my high school memories, talked to teachers, but nothing seemed to click. But then I realized I had one shot, one opportunity, to write the best goodbye possible. Could I write it, or would I slip?

I walked the halls about a thousand times trying to think of anything memorable, funny, or even tragic that happened over our four years in this high school. We've been in this school for close to 1,080 days, and almost 9,720 endless periods. And I couldn't think of a single thing. At that moment, I realized that the memories didn't come with the school, they came with the people. All I had to do was look around.

Among all the good times, our memories from this year remain on top. While it was unfortunate (and really stupid) that we lost our last chance at a Tucker Bowl victory, the absolute riot that ensued after always made me laugh. We were never afraid to wear our emotions on our sleeves, and we wore them proud that night. How about Hallway Decorating, when the fog machine set off the smoke alarms, and we had to evacuate in the pouring rain? We went straight into the gym after and had a field day. We still never made that night up to Ms. P, but let's not focus on the drawbacks. Most importantly, I could never forget the countless nights spent with everybody, with the only things separating us being a line of cars or a raging bonfire. That was when we really came together: For the great times.

It's unfortunate our last moments together were cut short. Life can be a pain sometimes. However, the silver lining is that in our time apart, this quarantine made us realize what we ought to cherish the most: Each other. I know I didn't at first, but I sure do now. Anyone who thinks our time here wasn't worth anything, check the scoreboard.

2020 Seniors: 1,000,000,000, Everyone else: 0.

And that's just the way it is.

I wish all of you the best of luck in your next phase of life. Whatever your future holds, I'm sure it's gonna be good. Can't wait for our 25-Year high school reunion. That should be interesting.

Forever and always your boy,

Marbs

Our Dear Grace,

In the blink of an eye, you have gone from finger-painting at Mrs. Ashton's to graduating MHS with honors & 16 college credits already accomplished! Like the caterpillar who becomes the butterfly, you have grown from our curious yet tentative pre-schooler, into a beautiful, intelligent and confident young lady. As you start this next phase in your life, never forget how far you have come, how much strength & determination you possess or how capable you are. Remember you are worthy & never forget how much you are loved.

We wish you every happiness & success.

~ With love & pride ~

Julia Rose, We can still remember you on your first day of school, and how nervous we felt letting go of your hand as you stepped on the bus to face the world by yourself for the very first time. We blinked our eyes, and suddenly we're so amazed for the smart and courageous young woman you've become, and so proud of your hard work and accomplishments. Congratulations to you and the Class of 2020. As you move on to face a world in the wake of unprecedented events, always remember that you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, smarter than you think, and we will ALWAYS love you to the moon and back! That has always been our motto to each other since the day you were born and will keep it and say it to each other forever! Congrats my love We are so very proud of you.

Dear Rylie (Ryles, Smiles, Ry, Baby Girl),

We cannot express the pride and excitement we feel as you graduate high school. It seems as if it was only yesterday that you were that happy, content, blue-eyed beautiful baby that completed our family. We have watched you grow into a kind, beautiful and intelligent young woman with ambitious goals for your future. There is no doubt that you will achieve them and beyond. Moving on to this next, very exciting stage of your life, we wish you only the best that this life has to offer. Seize every opportunity, go big and have no regrets. We will miss not having you in the house every day but we are excited about what your future holds. Always stay true to yourself and when things get tough, get up, straighten your crown and move on. Always remember... love you...love you more... love you most.

With Love,

Congratulations Kathryn on your high school graduation. It's hard to believe that you are already graduating. It has been a very fast eighteen years. When you entered this world we were recovering from the September 11 tragedies and were grateful for the joy you brought into our lives. Watching you grow over the years from the shy little girl you were into the strong confident woman who is about to spread her wings and explore the world makes us very proud. You will always be our Katie Bug and Little Miss. We have no doubt that which ever path you choose to take in life you will continue to tackle with your I can do it attitude. We know that you will not let anything stand in your way and you will always find the way to reach your goals. We love you and wish you all the success. Remember we are always here for you. Love, Mom, Dad and Eddie.

Emmet,

Never lose that infectious smile or contagious laugh.

Congratulations and God Bless!

WOJO

Dear Luke,

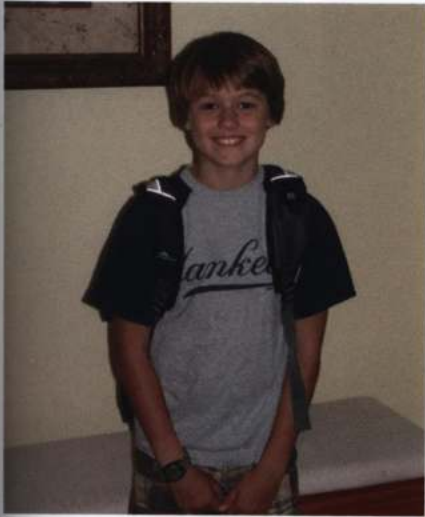

It has been a joy for us to watch you grow into a fine young man. As you leave MHS we want you to always remember where you came from. Entering to adult world is very scary, you will no longer have your friends from pre-school like Dana Reda and Annie Finigin and Caleb Foley. You won't have your favorite teachers like Mrs. Ficurilli, Mrs. Mc Donald, Mr. Massa Mr. Friend, Mr. Smith, Mr. Barbantie and Mr. Hankie but know they are behind you. We are going to miss seeing Andrew, Justin and Kyle. Let's not forget your coaches Jablonski, Sobco, and coach Dad !!! Coach John Amato to take this over the top! I think the most I'm going to miss is watching you play Lax. You have been very lucky to grow up in one town with all these wonderful people. Covid-19 may have robbed you and all these people of your SENIOR year but do not dwell on it forge ahead and on your memories at MHS.

Love,

Mom and Tata

Josh,
We are so proud of the man you have grown into.
Keep reaching for the stars and follow your dreams.

Love Always,

You can do anything as long as you have the passion, the drive, the focus, and the support!

We love you!

Cade, We are so proud of who you are and what you have accomplished. We are blessed to have such a wonderful son!

Congratulations Grace Emma Golder! We could not be more proud of you! Not only of your accomplishments but even more so the amazing young woman you have become. You are beautiful, smart, funny and so talented. You have the good sense and judgment to follow your own inner compass and that will always steer you in the right direction. As you tackle the next exciting chapter in your life at Hunter you will see how many awesome possibilities and opportunities await you in the Big Apple. The world is truly your oyster and we are always here in your corner rooting you on! Go get 'em Gracie!!! We love you! Mom, Dad and yes, even Jack!

I hope someday you are able to look back at your high school years and remember it as a positive experience. But also remember the road that you had to travel to achieve this end. Things were not always easy. Everyday was not always fun. But despite the bumps, you made it through. And so this is life. Now step into the world and know with confidence that you got what it takes to be successful. Just never stop working hard. Never stop learning. Never stop dreaming. Never stop being Brett.
